

Carter Scraps Rebate

By R. GREGORY NOKES
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter has decided to scrap his controversial plan to give $50 tax rebates to 200 million Americans because he is convinced the economy will improve without the stimulus, administration sources said today.

It was learned Carter made the final decision to drop the rebate plan Wednesday night. A formal announcement of the action was expected today, possibly from the President himself.

Although the rebate plan was known to be in trouble in Congress, sources insisted this was not the main reason Carter decided to withdraw it. They acknowledged, however, that it is likely that many people will interpret the decision that way.

Critics of the plan, including Federal Reserve Board Chairman Arthur F. Burns, had warned that the plan would fuel inflation.

The Los Angeles Times said Carter was expected to announce today that he was withdrawing both the rebate proposal and a $2 billion investment tax credit for industry.

The two proposals are major segments of his proposed economic stimulus program for this year.

The Baltimore Sun reported Carter had been considering the move for the past two days, and finally reached his decision at a meeting with top advisers Wednesday night.

The paper said the President was advised to move quickly so the way would be cleared for consideration of his anti-inflation proposals, which he is unveiling at a news conference Friday.

The New York Times said the strongest advocates of withdrawing the rebate plan were budget director Bert Lance and Treasury Secretary W. Michael Blumenthal.

But top Carter administration officials had staunchly defended the rebates in speeches this week.

Labor Secretary Ray Marshall, speaking Tuesday in Detroit, defended the rebates as important to the nation's economy. He warned, "We should not underestimate the effects on consumer confidence if they are deprived of the tax rebates that they have come to anticipate."

Blumenthal told the National Press Club on Wednesday that the rebate was needed to further stimulate the economy.

"The economy is indeed improving

... but the rate of improvement is still too slow, and we need to find ways to achieve more rapid growth," the treasury secretary said.

Both houses of Congress are off for an Easter recess this week. The full Senate was scheduled to take up Carter's stimulus plan next week. The House approved the plan, including the rebates, in March.

The plan's chances for passage in the Senate were uncertain. All 38 Republicans were against it and Democratic support was not solid.

The plan would give rebates to 200 million Americans with a taxpayer getting $50 for himself and each dependent. The $50 payments would decrease as income rose between $25,000 and $30,000, with no rebates going to those earning more than $30,000.

The payments would also go to recipients of Social Security, veterans' pensions and welfare who pay no taxes.

Kentucky Flood Area Now Dust Bowl

PINEVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Less than two weeks ago, three raging rivers threatened life and property in eastern Kentucky. Now choking clouds of dust hinder operations to clean up the sodden debris left by receding waters.

"The dust is terrible," Pineville City Judge Bob Madon told Gov. Julian Carroll, who on Wednesday made his third helicopter tour of Appalachian towns ravaged by the floods.

At Harlan, state police Lt. Tom Rakestraw told the governor, "Our boys directing traffic are wearing surgical masks. They just about have to breathe."

The state ordered delivery of 2,000 surgical masks to Pineville.

In the dusty streets of Pineville, Harlan, South Williamson and Pikeville, as well as other Appalachian towns, workers shoveled and swept debris and mud from houses and boarded-up stores.

As he splashed through the muddy interior of a drug store in downtown Pineville, Carroll said, "These people have a big backbone."

A brown line on the wall showed that the waters of the Cumberland River had stood about a foot below the ceiling at the crest of the flood, which left six dead and caused at least $100 million in damage in Kentucky.

"Just in east Pineville, there were 14 homes washed away," said Bell County Judge Willie Hendrickson. "Trailers were picked up and broken like matchsticks."

ROUNDTOWN

THAT time of the year is here again... Income tax forms, both state and federal, must be in the mail by midnight Friday.

KINGSTON residents will hear a new sound in the village at noon Saturday... Installation of the tornado warning siren has just been completed, and is set for testing on Saturday...

Ken Lingg, mayor, said the tornado siren will go off at one end of town, followed by the fire department's alarm at the other end... He said the combination of sounds will be quite definite...

There will be spotters in different areas around Kingston, such as Tarlton and Hallsville, to note how far the sound is carrying.

THE Herald received a report of an unusual light in the sky east of Circleville... According to the person who spotted it, the light is described as being about the size of a dinner plate with a red light of equal size immediately underneath it... It seemingly does not move but suddenly disappears...

The light has been seen Saturday, Sunday and Monday evenings at about 9 p.m.

HELP the After-Prom party this year at Circle D, May 14th... Free for the kids, it is financed by donations from parents and any interested persons... Donations are running far behind last year... Please send any donations to: After Prom Committee, in care of Ed Tomlinson, Treasurer, 426 Ruth Avenue.

RANDOLPH WOLFE

Randolph Wolfe, 128 Parkview Ave. in Circleville was chosen by Pickaway County Committee on Aging as their 1977 inductee into the Central Ohio Senior Citizen Hall of Fame. Wolfe, along with ten other senior citizens from Central Ohio will be honored at a noon Banquet to be held May 11 at the Rhodes Center on the State Fairgrounds.

Wolfe, an unassuming soft spoken man, has contributed in a great many ways to citizens of Pickaway County without thought of recompense. His reward was the satisfaction of being where needed at the right time and being capable of filling the particular need.

A native of Pickaway County, he and his wife, the former Margaret Ater, reside at 128 Parkview Ave. He was born July 19, 1904, in Tarlton. He was reared by his grandparents as his mother died when he was two years old. He attended the Tarlton School and was engaged in farming the greater part of his life. He is a very young 72-year-old gentleman, dedicated to helping others. Born to Wolfe and his first wife, now deceased, were six children, one daughter and five sons. The success of his children in particular endeavors reflects his guidance and counseling.

Wolfe and Margaret were married in 1926. Both are active members of the Pickaway County Senior Center and assist where needed in projects of the center along with private work to aid individuals in need giving of their seemingly tireless time and energy.

At the present time Wolfe is serving as vice-president of the Pickaway Senior Center. He is a member of the Pickaway Council on Aging, Inc., Advisory Council of the Pickaway Senior Center, where he has served for the past three years. He is now in his second term as a director of the Pickaway Terrace Inc., the Pickaway County Senior Citizen Housing Project. He is active in all the organizations he serves as a volunteer.

Wolfe is a leader in advocacy role to help effect changes for elderly persons. He is for senior citizen housing program and works toward securing the project locally. He supports and promotes better nutrition for the homebound or shut-in elderly. He is an advocate for the Pickaway Senior Center and the Club, and also of the Ashville Senior Citizens Club.

Contributions as a volunteer are many and varied. He has been a member of Saltcreek Valley Grange for the past 39 years and has held every office in the organization. He has served many years on the board of elections and for 12 years served on the Tarlton School Board. At the age of 69 he purchased the Tarlton Presbyterian Church, no longer in use, and donated the edifice to the Grange.

Wolfe has received the Grange Builders Pin, the Ohio State Grange Pin and the 7th Degree National Grange Pin. He was the recipient of the 1975 Ohio State Fair Award for Mr. Senior Citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe have been volunteers for the Franciscan Community Meals Program for the past three years. They have delivered two routes which includes eight meals a day, four times a month from Pickaway Manor Nursing Home and eight meals twice a month from Brown Memorial Nursing Home and they often substitute for other drivers.

Wolfe often takes elderly persons to the Social Security office in Chillicothe, and to its branch office in Circleville, to Columbus hospitals and visits several home-bound elderly citizens and particularly helps his 91 year old neighbor. For over one year he took an elderly gentleman to Berger Hospital twice weekly for inhalation therapy, prolonging his life.

For the past year he has assisted in preparations for the Senior Center's monthly card party and has helped clean the center as needed.

Wolfe purchased a $1,000 certificate of deposit for the Senior Center in 1976, which donates $75 each year for the center building fund. He also in 1976 bought a $1,000 certificate of deposit for the Presbyterian Church where he serves as a lifetime elder, and has served as a deacon and trustee.

He is an exceptional friendly person, who has a good sense of humor and enjoys people. He is a great morale builder and always has a good word and shows concern for everyone, particularly the elderly. He is generous with his finances but few know how much time and money he spends on others.

The second annual Central Ohio Senior Citizen Hall of Fame Awards Banquet is sponsored by the Central Ohio Area Agency of Aging in cooperation with its Advisory Council and each of the eight Central Ohio County Committees on Aging. The Hall of Fame is intended as one way in which the community can recognize the continuing contributions and achievements of its senior citizens and their positive responses to the challenge of retirement.

Lunch will be served at noon followed by entertainment by the Senior Citizens' Chorus of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, Columbus, and the presentation of awards.

Tickets for the Banquet are available from the Pickaway Senior Center. The deadline for purchasing tickets is April 29.

Other senior citizens nominated in Pickaway County were: Twyla Lorentz, Fannie Brooks, Leona Berger, and Clara DeLong.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Food and Drug Administration, standing by its plan to ban saccharin as an additive to foods and beverages, today proposed to allow the sugar substitute to be marketed as an over-the-counter drug for use by diabetics and others.

The FDA proposal is designed to help persons who "for medical reasons must restrict their intake of sugar."

The agency invited public comment on the proposal for 60 days and will hold public hearings in Washington on the controversial issue next month.

The FDA action would ban most current uses of the artificial sweetener, including its formulation in diet soft drinks and artificially sweetened foods. However, saccharin could be sold over-the-counter in tablet or powder form.

The manufacturers of Sweet 'n Low, a saccharin-based artificial sweetener, said in advance of the announcement, "If they allow the use of saccharin as an over-the-counter drug, they are admitting it is safe. And if it's safe in one use, it certainly should be safe in foods and all other uses."

The FDA announced March 9 that it intended to ban saccharin as a food additive under a law that prohibits adding any substance to food that is shown to cause cancer in humans or animals.

The basis for the ban is a Canadian study in which two generations of laboratory rats fed large amounts of saccharin developed an unusually high number of malignant bladder tumors.

But such risks are difficult to measure scientifically in humans.

Gardner added, however, that even without the Delaney Amendment, saccharin probably would be banned as dangerous to consumers' health.

It is not yet clear whether the manufacturers of saccharin can make a case for the safety and effectiveness of their product. The FDA believes that saccharin taken in normal amounts is a mild carcinogen, or cancer-causing agent, and increases an individual's risk of getting bladder cancer by about one and one half per cent.

But such risks are difficult to measure scientifically in humans.

Weather

Mostly sunny today with a high in the low 70s. Partly cloudy tonight and Friday with a low tonight in the middle 40s and a high Friday near 70. KILLED INSTANTLY — Members of the Pickaway Twp. Fire Department and Circleville Emergency Medical Team worked for over an hour to free the body of a Columbus trucker who was killed Wednesday afternoon on Route 23 at the Scippo Creek Bridge.

Columbus Trucker Killed In Crash With Scippo Bridge

A Columbus man became Pickaway County's first traffic accident victim of 1977 when his tractor and semi-trailer rig crashed into the Scippo Creek bridge on Route 23 about 2:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Killed instantly in the crash was Roy H. Anderson, 57, 1049 Harmon Ave., a driver of Ohio Penitentiary Industries.

Members of the Pickaway Twp. Fire Department and Circleville Emergency Medical Team worked for over an hour to free his body from the wreckage of the cab, which came to rest against the bridge support in the creek.

The trailer, which contained shoes and cardboard bound for Columbus from the Southern Ohio Correctional Institution in Lucasville, was jammed against the side of the southbound bridge.

U.S.-Vietnam Embassies Possible

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is likely to propose an exchange of ambassadors with Vietnam as the best way of dealing with an array of postwar problems, administration sources say.

President Carter disclosed last month that U.S.-Vietnamese talks will resume in Paris but officials say they do not want the discussions to take the rigid pattern they followed before.

Dating back to the 1968-73 Vietnam peace talks, Paris has been the scene of most diplomatic contact between

Washington and Hanoi.

Orchestrated press leaks and bickering over dates, levels of representation and shapes of negotiating tables distracted the two sides from the issues. Officials say the best way to avoid that again would be to establish a Vietnamese embassy here and an American embassy in Hanoi.

The two countries exchanged notes for almost eight months in Paris last year before they could agree to resume talks in the French capital. The one meeting that was held was inconclusive.

Some officials blame the long delay on mutual suspicion between Vietnamese authorities and then-Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger. But even now, the haggling continues.

The United States wanted to send a deputy assistant secretary of state to an April meeting, according to officials.

Vietnam insisted on a higher ranking official and Washington countered with an offer to send an assistant secretary of state to Paris for talks in early May.

When the discussions do start, the Carter administration is expected to propose the exchange of ambassadors, but officials emphasize that the U.S. strategy still is not final.

The proposed round of talks grew out of the visit to Vietnam last month by a five-member U.S. commission seeking information on the more than 1,900 Americans still unaccounted for in Vietnam.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — Encouraged by reports that President Carter plans to drop the $50 tax rebate plan, the stock market opened sharply higher today.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials rose about five points in the early going, and gainers took about a 5-1 lead over losers among New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

Adding to its Wednesday advance, the market apparently was responding to several developments from the White House. But the best news was that the President has decided to scrap his controversial plan to give $50 tax rebates to 200 million Americans because he is convinced the economy will improve without the stimulus, according to administration sources today.

Today's early prices included AT&T, up 1/2 to 63 3/4, and Gillette, ahead 1/4 to 27.

Westinghouse Electric went up 1/8 to 19 1/2. On Wednesday, the company announced higher first-quarter earnings.

On Wednesday the Dow Jones industrial average snapped back from a minus-7 reading at mid-day to finish with a 1.02 gain at 938.18.

That ran the average's advance for the last four trading days to 23.45 points.

Gainers outpaced losers by about a 4-3 margin on the NYSE.

Big Board volume came to 21.80 million shares, down from Tuesday's four-week high of 23.76 million.

The NYSE's composite index added .04 to 54.45.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was up .32 at 111.82.

Arms Proposal Rejection By Soviets Final

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet rejection of the latest U.S. arms limitation proposals is final, Pravda said today, asserting that they "not only lack any constructive element but in general cannot be the subject of serious discussion."

The Soviet Communist party newspaper dismissed suggestions by U.S. officials that the Soviet government rejected the proposals during Secretary of State Cyrus Vance's recent visit to Moscow because it needed more time to study them.

"Some quarters are pretending in vain that the Soviet side has not given a final answer and that it allegedly needs time to study the new American proposals because of their 'drastic' nature," Pravda said.

Although Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin discussed the American proposals Tuesday and Wednesday in Washington with top U.S. officials including President Carter, the lengthy Pravda editorial repeated criticisms made by Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko at a televised news conference after Vance's departure.

Pravda said the proposals were "not serious," overturn progress already made, renege on the commitment of the Ford administration in the 1974 Vladivostok agreement and attempt to give the United States unilateral advantages.

Late Tax Filers Will Have To Wait

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — About 60 per cent of Ohioans filing personal income tax returns this year will earn refunds averaging about $26. But if you haven't filed yet, it could take two months to get the check.

The deadline for filing 1976 state income tax returns is midnight Friday, the same day the Internal Revenue Service wants your federal return.

They're bracing for a flood of paper at the state Department of Taxation's income tax division.

"We're approximately 100,000 returns behind last year," said administrative assistant Steve Nolan. But the stream of incoming mail has been building in recent days as the deadline approaches.

The department has hired about 140 temporary personnel to handle the rush of extra work during the filing season. The agency processed about 3.9 million tax forms in 1976.

But even with their help and the use of computers, people who have waited until the last minute to file will find it takes "approximately six to eight weeks" to get their refund checks in the mail, according to Nolan.

The unusually bad winter weather may be partially to blame for delaying the number of returns filed so far. "We speculate that because of the bad weather a number of people were laid off and may have waited to the last minute to get money to pay their taxes," Nolan said.

Others may have had difficulty in obtaining the proper forms.

The department has received more complaints than usual this year from people who did not receive their forms, said Nolan. "We mailed out all the returns we were supposed to but we had numerous complaints that some people didn't get them," he said.

The problem could be traced to people who changed residences during the year. The post office does not forward returns, Nolan said.

Taxpayers who are facing the Friday deadline without the proper forms should try to get them at a local bank or post office or one of the taxation department's offices, he said.

Death Toll Jump First In 55 MPH Years

CHICAGO (AP) — For the first time since Congress passed the 55-mile-an-hour speed limit, the annual national traffic death toll has increased, the National Safety Council says.

Motor vehicle-related deaths totaled 55,511 in 1973, but dropped sharply to 46,402 in 1974, the first year of the 55-mile-per-hour limit. The figure was down to 46,000 in 1975, before last year's rise to 47,100, the council added in a report released Wednesday.

The council said total estimated miles traveled by American drivers rose slightly in 1976 over 1975, a possible reason for the increased traffic deaths.

Officials in many states have found efforts to enforce the 55-mile-an-hour limit difficult. Some state legislators have talked about circumventing the speed limit with state laws.

The council also reported that accidental deaths dropped to 99,500 in 1976, the lowest level in 15 years.

Heart disease, cancer and strokes remain the top three causes of death, the safety council said, with accidental deaths fourth. Among accident types showing declines in 1976 were drownings, falls, poisoning and firearms accidents.

But accidents were the leading cause of death among both sexes aged 1 to 38 years old, while the highest number of deaths occurred in the age group 15 to 24, with 24,000 fatalities.

Cincy Strike In Standoff

CINCINNATI (AP) — School officials and striking teachers were in a standoff today, with administrators saying pay raises hinged on passage of a levy and union leaders calling for total shutdown of the 65,000-pupil system.

Both sides agreed the strike by the Cincinnati Federation of Teachers (CFT) that began Wednesday caused widespread disruption of the public school system.

But Supt. James Jacobs vowed to make every effort to keep all schools "legally open. My definition is that if only one pupil and one teacher attend, the school is open."

Apparently, in some cases that almost was true Wednesday, with no teachers in the classrooms at three schools and only a 25 per cent showup reported at 14 elementary and nine secondary schools, according to district officials.

Overall, attendance records indicated that 1,610 of 3,100 teachers in 104 schools did not report and 56 per cent of the junior and senior high school students and 37 per cent of the elementary pupils were absent.

Roger Stephens, CFT president, expressed satisfaction with the effectiveness of the walkout.

C.H.S. Students Tour Spanish Sites

Circleville High School continues its belief in international understanding by arranging for student groups to visit France, Italy and Spain as a part of Study Tours organized by the Cultural Heritage Alliance and the Italian Latin Studies Society.

Mrs. Jack Mader, assisted by Mrs. Harold Whitfield, left on April 7th for a ten-day intensive study of Madrid, Avila, Segovia, Toledo, Granada, Cordoba and Seville.

The study of history, art and other basic background features began weeks earlier. All the young people are members of the junior or senior classes and speak Spanish. In the group are Linda Fisher, Melissa Frazier, Beth Hovermale, Tami Hughes, Anna Isaac, Debbie Keller, Brian Sealock, Dan Smith, Sheryl Spangler, Susan Stevenson and Sue Strong. All left from Philadelphia for Madrid on a Pan Am Jet April 7.

Madrid's old palace and cathedral symbolize the Golden Age of Spain in contrast to present day Spain with its expanding university, busy streets, shops and new structures. Here students will become acquainted with the Royal Palace, Retiro Park with its small temples and colonades, Memorial of Cervantes and the famous Prado Museum, one of the world's greatest where the works of Spanish painters are presented each in a great hall of its own thus enabling the students to get an uncluttered association with Goya, El Greco and Velazquez.

By motorcoach, the best way to get the "feel" of the countryside, the itinerary included a trip to the palace-monastery of Escorial, visiting the Basilica, and the Palace and the apartments of Felipe II. Before returning to Madrid, the Valley of the Fallen honoring Spain's Civil War dead impressed the young people.

Leaving Madrid on the third day Avila, with its medieval walls, Segovia, with its massive Roman aqueduct and picturesque castle, were seen before returning to Madrid by way of the snow-capped mountains of Sierra Guadarrama.

Leaving Madrid again for Toledo, the former capital of Spain, they saw the city which is a National Monument and cannot be changed in any way except by Government order. Here was the Alcazar as well as the home of El Greco. In the cathedral the most famous mural of El Greco, The Burial of Count Orgaz, was seen before returning to Madrid. Toledo is famous for its Spanish jewelry and souvenirs believed to be made of the best steel due to its bath in the Tagus River.

On the 6th day the group was off to Granada traveling through the wheat fields of La Mancha, crossing the Despenaperros Pass, olive groves and the high Sierras and arriving for dinner and the night. By this time everyone had adjusted to the Spanish plan of dinner at 11 p.m. Another night in Granada where the long-awaited Alhambra and Generalife Palace, the summer residence of the Moorish Kings, gave a contrasting view from Toledo and Segovia.

Now the boys and girls are on the return trip via Cordoba and Seville. Cordoba, the Mezquita 8th century mosque supported by hundreds of marble columns and illuminated by 4000 bronze and copper lamps and finally to Seville. Here the famous Gothic Cathedral, two famous Murillo paintings, the Christopher Columbus Mausoleum and the Moorish Alcazar, an example of Arab-Christian architecture are to be seen before the April 17, return to the American way of life which no student would forfeit.

Not all the time was spent in seeing Spain, there were fun times too but leave it to the boys and girls to tell all about it. Also the story of the two boys who were "bumped off the plane in Columbus, went to Chicago and arrived first class to join the group before departure from Philadelphia on their Pan Am jet. What tales for their grandchildren.

A-C Board Accepts Budget

The Amanda-Clearcreek Board of Education held its regular meeting April 11, and accepted the revised athletic budget as presented by the Athletic Director Jeff Arndt.

The Board of Education is asking for volunteers to organize a Citizen Committee for promotion of the operating levy that the board will be asking for on the June Ballot in the amount of 7.7 mills.

Any interested parties should attend a special board meeting 7 p.m. April 25 at the Amanda building.

Permission was granted for the following trips. James Flanagan to workshop in Columbus; Diane Gabriel to attend part of an outdoor education program at Geneva Hills Library Club for a visit to the Ohio State Library and Wagnalls Memorial and Arndt to Ohio State Football Clinic.

Bill Mosley was hired as custodian at the Stoutsville building and the substitute teachers list was accepted from the Fairfield County Schools office.

The board adopted the salary schedules for the next school year.

A policy was accepted dealing with the Due Process and procedures for identification evaluation placement and periodic review case management for Handicapped Children which conforms with House Bill 455.

The board's membership in the Metropolitan Education Council was renewed.

Mother, Son Are Law Partners

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Attorney David Bergmann loves his law partner like his mother.

In fact, she is his mother. Bergmann, 27, is a 1975 graduate of the University of Michigan law school. Dorothy Bergmann, 58, earned her law degree in 1948 at Rutgers University in New Jersey.

Bergmann joined his mother's business Jan. 1.

A spokesman for the Ohio State Bar Association says the mother-son firm, with offices in Stow, Ohio, is unusual. "Despite the increase in the number of women practicing law," said Gary Hunt, a spokesman for the state association, "there aren't that many who have been at it long enough to have a son old enough to have gone through college and law school."

Mrs. Bergmann worked her way through school as a reporter for the Newark Star Ledger.

After graduation she taught labor law and industrial relations at the University of Illinois until she married Ralph Bergmann. The couple was divorced in 1964 and her former husband is now an economist in Geneva, Switzerland.

She returned to Akron with her four children and began preparing for the Ohio bar examination.

Mrs. Bergmann was admitted to the bar in 1964 and her first work was in arbitration cases for the International Chemical Workers Union. She entered private practice in 1969.

She is among a small number of women trial lawyers in the Akron area. She estimates about one third of her work involves criminal cases.

Both the law partners say their professional relationship is advantageous.

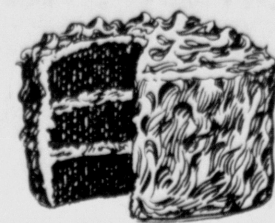

"David has a good legal mind and I often use him as a sounding board for ideas when I'm preparing for a trial," she said. "He also appears for me in court when I'm tied up somewhere else and I do the same for him.

"So far, I've really had the best of both worlds. I get the benefit of his ideas on a case, and when I get tired of arguing with him, I can pull rank as his mother and shut him up."

A Page Of Opinion

Compounding Achievement

Cynics to the contrary, the spirit of self-reliance is not dead in the United States. It can pop up where least expected — even New York City.

Two years ago a few New Yorkers began a block association to clean up their neighborhood. There is nothing unique about that. Such efforts come and go in many cities. But this one has grown from block to block until it now has 8,000 members.

Their efforts have grown beyond cleanliness to include sanitary and safety projects.

Among the latter is a volunteer mobile security patrol. All of the projects have been completely voluntary, people giving some of their time to perform the kind of tasks they consider important in improving their neighborhoods without asking the official city structure for assistance.

Apparently the volunteer example is still contagious. Private contributions have been coming in and the next project could be rehabilitating an abandoned building into a home for the elderly. That's not a bad start for an all-volunteer, two-year effort.

Many persons would be — and many are — discouraged by the complexities of problems faced by cities like New York. The effort which begins small and builds on its own successes still can do wonders.

A few thousand New Yorkers are rediscovering the sense of achievement. What they are accomplishing on their own others in other cities and towns also can do. All they have to do is try.

Taxing A Columnist

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — It is said that an elephant never forgets. Well after all, why should he? When you come down to it, what does an elephant have to remember — a tusk here, a sahib there, and maybe a glimpse of William Holden on safari. And Holden doesn't even introduce himself to the elephant, so there's no problem with names.

People, on the other hand, have too much to remember. Names, faces, statistics, gossip, weather reports, world leaders, coffee prices, dates, times, places, TV plots, adjectives, gerunds, plane crashes, appointments — it's no wonder those "I-forgot-your-birthday" cards make so much money for that greeting card company — what's its name? — you know, the people who sponsor that Hall of Fame.

Like a great many other people, I have a poor memory, but I try to forget about it. It's only at this season, income tax time, that it becomes painful.

"You marked this check 'Dinner Party'," says my husband. "Who did we entertain?"

"Mmmmm. Let me think."

"On August 18th, you deposited $83.36 in your savings account. Where did that come from?"

"Oh. Let's see now."

"Phyllis, you've got to keep better records."

It's funny the things you do remember. Such as how touchy husbands always get at tax time.

I once told Dr. Bruno Furst, the late memory expert, about my feeling that

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Milton Friedman has just expressed himself as being in favor of paying some of the government's creditors in real money, and right away you can hear the critics saying there's something unreal about it.

Real money is that from which inflation has been wrung and, as you know, it isn't the money we use. Generally, when we lend somebody money they pay us back in current dollars, or dollars whose buying power is eroded by inflation.

It's a terrible disincentive to saving and lending. It has been called immoral and, in a sense, it's robbery. It contributes to the shortage of capital we need to expand our economic plant.

Friedman, the Nobel laureate in economics, would correct that, for some small savers anyway, and so his proposal is bound to be examined like other Friedman proposals as something bizarre.

The professor, whose statements from his base at the University of Chicago are generally considered conservative, would issue "purchasing power securities. The saver would receive back his principle, plus interest, plus an inflation adjustment.

That adjustment is all important, because it would mean that the dollars with which you are repaid would have the same buying power as the dollars you lent to the government by purchasing its securities.

As things now stand, a person who buys a U.S. Savings Bond for $18.75 receives 6 per cent interest and so, after five years, has $25 returned. But what has inflation done? Left the buying power of the money back there at $18.75 or less.

Many purchasers of savings bonds have had that misfortune in recent years, and it says a lot about the bitterness that some small savers feel, especially when the government, the borrower, is responsible for much of that inflation.

Friedman's plan would assure small savers that they would receive back their money in real rather than current dollars, plus interest.

There is precedent for so doing. International currencies float in value against each other, thanks to Friedman, whereas once they were held to unreal, fixed values. The cost of some home mortgages now float with the prevailing interest rate.

The purpose of these moves is to bring reality to bear on the situations involved. We do not live in a world of fixed prices and interest rates. We do have inflation. We do have erosion of purchasing power.

To say that the dollar of today is worth the same as yesterday's dollar, or that it will be worth the same as tomorrow's, is to deny the existence of an inflation that we know, painfully, is all about us.

It is the equivalent of measuring one high-jumper's achievement with a 12-inch foot and another's by a 10-inch foot, or timing one mile with a 62-second watch and another with a regulation 60-second timepiece.

Friedman would apply the same standard to the dollar's lent as he would to the dollar's repaid: What is their purchasing power? And during inflation, the dollar returned is always worth less than the dollar lent.

All Friedman would do is recognize this reality. But, so used are we to the unfair old ways that you can bet an inflated dollar that his proposal will be criticized, perhaps even as inflationary.

They'll Do It Every Time

Mothers Head The Family

NEW YORK (AP) — Families headed by mothers have almost doubled over the last decade according to U.S. government statistics. The head of the household in one out of every 13 families is a woman. These 4.4 million women may be divorced, separated, widowed or single and according to the American Council of Life Insurance, their median age is 43.4 years.

The biggest problem is a woman-headed household is often financial, they said. Only the third of the households polled by the Council had earnings of $10,000 or more. About 54 per cent of the women heading families were working in 1975.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Thursday, April 14, the 104th day of 1977. There are 261 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1865, President Abraham Lincoln was shot by John Wilkes Booth at Ford's Theater in Washington. Lincoln died the next morning.

On this date:

In 1890, delegates to the Washington conference of American states created what was to become the Pan American Union.

In 1912, the ocean liner "Titanic" struck an iceberg in the North Atlantic shortly before midnight. The ship sank 2½ hours later, with the loss of more than 1,500 lives.

In 1931, King Alfonso of Spain went into exile and the Spanish Republic was proclaimed.

In 1945, in the Pacific war, U.S. B-29 bombers pounded Tokyo and the Japanese imperial palace.

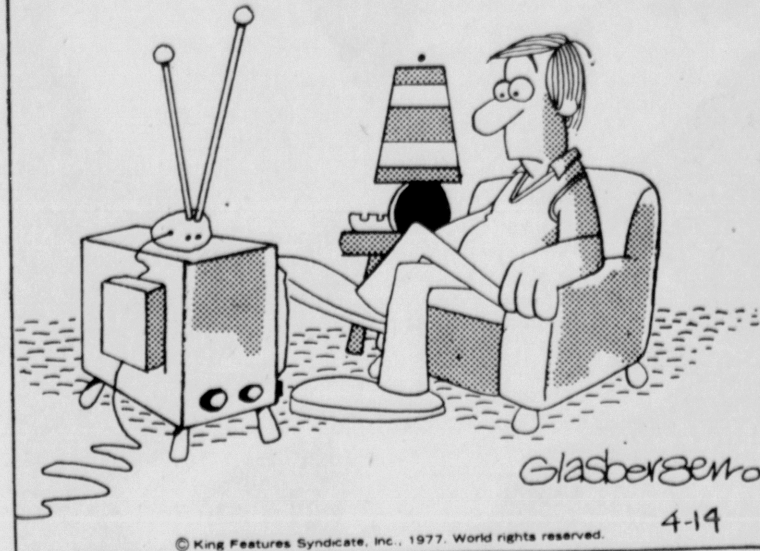

Ten years ago: General William Westmoreland, U.S. Commander in the Pacific, said he could not see any end to the Vietnam war.

Five years ago: Four persons were killed by urban guerrillas in Uruguay.

One year ago: Patricia Hearst agreed to testify against members of the Symbionese Liberation army in an apparent move to get judicial leniency.

Today's birthdays: Actor John Gielgud is 73 years old. Actress Julie Christie is 36.

Thought for today: A woman with her hair combed up always looks as if she were going some place — either to the opera or the shower bath — Orson Welles.

"The regularly scheduled program will not be seen tonight so that we may bring you the following special commercials."

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

At what age should a child have an operation for cleft palate? My grandchild was born a week ago. You can imagine how upset we all are.

Mrs. R.W., Ind.

Dear Mrs. W.: I can appreciate your anxiety about this birth malformation. Yet I would like to assure you immediately that modern surgery is remarkably advanced in the repair of both cleft palate and the harelip, if one is present.

Plastic surgeons, using operating microscopes, now obtain spectacular results, leaving little or no evidence of the original deformity.

The choice of the exact operation and the ideal time depends, of course, on the judgment of the surgeon. With the safety of modern anesthesia and the operation itself, children are being operated on at very early stages in their lives, even during infancy.

The results are so gratifying that you and your family should draw comfort from the confidence in the eventual outcome of your grandchild's problem.

Since we moved to a large city I've had the feeling that my wife and children are just not as well as they used to be when we lived in the country. I'm giving real thought to going back to live on a farm even though my economic opportunities are better in the city. Does this sound reasonable to you?

Mr. J.L.V., Calif.

Dear Mr. V.: Federal and state medical agencies are paying a great deal of attention to this idea. In fact, a National Conference on Rural Health is being held soon, in an effort to study the advantages of rural health over city health.

Dr. Julian Lentz, of North Carolina, says, "The rural environment has always been assumed to be a healthy one because of hard work, exercise and clean air. But the health of the rural population is not all that good. For example, the rate of infant deaths is as high in poor rural populations as it was for the general population twenty-five years ago. And more than 16 per cent of the people living in rural areas have chronic diseases that limit their activity. This is higher than that which occurs in large cities."

It is hoped that medical societies, farm groups, universities and government agencies will come to some conclusion about rural health after the conference. I don't think it is wise for you and your family to be uprooted because of speculation, rather than fact.

Gray Drug Inc. Plans New Stores

CLEVELAND (AP) — Gray Drug Stores Inc. plans to open 70 to 90 new stores in the next five years, company president Jerome A. Weinberger said Tuesday.

In a meeting of the Boston Financial Research Associates, Weinberger said that the Cleveland-based drug and discount department store chain expects earnings for the fiscal year ending this month to be more than the $5.1 million of last year.

Gray operates 177 drug stores, 40 Rink's discount stores and 47 leased departments in other stores, mainly in Ohio and adjacent states.

Your Horoscope

By FRANCIS DRAKE

What kind of day will tomorrow be? To find out what the stars say, read the forecast given for your birth Sign.

FOR FRIDAY
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): Curb your inborn aggressiveness now. You can attain your objectives, even "impossible" ones, by using subtle tactics.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): An appetite for hard work and consistent accuracy will help you break through seemingly impregnable barriers. Reap harvests happily.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): Rationalize, think things out logically before making important moves. Your seeking, searching mind will permit you to see the essentials — and new opportunities.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Be guided by logic in stress periods. Give anxiety no quarter. Be prepared to cope with some minor obstacles which may appear.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): Study effort will see you through this day of mostly variable influences. Some hours may be really "tricky." All challenges should prove interesting, however.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): As with Gemini, serious thoughts should precede serious steps. Don't let superficial attractiveness blind you to flaws at the core of propositions.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): Don't be discouraged if your efforts seem unappreciated. Instead, draw attention to them — but in a subtle manner.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22): Rule out extremes and risky chance-taking. It is sometimes difficult for a native of Scorpio to stress conservatism, but it's a MUST during this somewhat misleading period.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): An excellent day for dealing with superiors, for making them aware of your ultimate goals and expressing your willingness to take on more responsibilities.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Take a second look before accepting new ideas or unusual propositions. Don't waste time and energy pursuing a will o' the wisp. Be especially careful about financial involvements.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Care needed in routine activities. Make no drastic changes arbitrarily, and be especially careful about details. There's a tendency to let the mind wander when it shouldn't.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Travel under especially beneficent influences. In fact, some exciting circumstances attending a short trip should give you a big lift.

YOU BORN TODAY, intensely active and energetic, are a born progressive, with a versatility that fits you for success in many fields, notably: art, literature, the law, business management, invention and the theater. You tend to be emotional, overly aggressive at times, and stubborn, too. But once you learn to curb these traits and gain complete mastery over self, you can reach any height to which you aspire. Birthdate of: Leonardo da Vinci, famed Italian artist; Henry James, Amer. author; Elizabeth Montgomery, TV star.

PUCO Rejects Auditor's Request

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state auditor's attempt to make Ohio natural gas utilities pay for Gov.

James A. Rhodes' gas hunting trips this winter was rejected Tuesday by Public Utilities Commission Chairman

C. Luther Heckman.

Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson last Friday asked Heckman to charge the trip costs, estimated at $25,000 including newspaper advertisements, to the utilities.

"As you know, the Ohio Supreme Court has found, on many occasions, that the commission is 'a creature of statute' and vested only with those powers created in the statute by the General Assembly," Heckman wrote in refusing to bill the companies.

Ferguson said Tuesday that his next step will be to ask the governor to supply a list of all Ohio utilities that bought gas from contacts developed by Rhodes during his trips to the Southwest and Canada and attempt to bill them according to the proportion of the gas they bought.

Under the Ferguson plan for billing utilities, they would not have been able to add the expense to their operating costs and therefore to their rate bases. That would have kept the cost of those trips from being passed through to Ohioans either through tax expenditures or utility bills.

Ferguson said he is withholding vouchers for payment of the governor's expenses claiming that the trips were of direct benefit to the gas companies.

Heckman disagreed.

"The trips were made to achieve additional supplies of gas and I believe all Ohioans benefited by the Governor's initiative. At most, I would characterize the gas utilities as being incidental beneficiaries of this worthwhile effort. The real parties of interest were the citizens of this state," he said.

Ferguson's attempt at making the utilities pay Rhodes' travel expenses comes on the heels of an announcement by the governor that he wants Ferguson's office to be the subject of state audits.

Ferguson has balked at that suggestion claiming political motivations on Rhodes' part. He says the governor is seeking to "harrass" potential Democrat candidates for governor in 1978.

Heckman suggested Tuesday that Ferguson's request might be a comeback to Rhodes' actions against the auditor's office.

A Rhodes' aide said the governor's office has not been contacted by Ferguson and isn't sure what the auditor wants now and furthermore is unsure what response will be made once a contact is made.

Subject: Purchase of School Buses
For: The Board of Education of the Westfall Local School District, Williamsport, Ohio.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Education of the Westfall Local School District of Williamsport, Ohio at the Board of Education office at 12:00 noon on April 25, 1977, and at that time opened by the clerk of said board as provided by law for two 1978, 66 passenger school buses, with alternates according to specifications of said board of education. Separate and independent bids will be received with respect to the chassis and body type, and will state that the buses when assembled and prior to delivery, comply with all school district specifications, all safety regulations and current Ohio Minimum Standards for School Bus Construction of the Department of Education adopted by and with the consent of the Director of Highway Safety and all other pertinent provisions of law.

Each bid must be accompanied by a bid bond or certified check drawn upon a bank made payable to the Clerk-Treasurer of the Westfall Board of Education in an amount equal to five (5) per cent of the total bid. All bids must remain firm for a period of thirty days from April 25, 1977. The board reserves the right to refuse any and all bids.

Specifications and instructions to bidders are on file in the office of the Clerk-Treasurer, Williamsport, Ohio.

You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You are able to look fear in the face, you are able to say to yourself "I have lived through this horror. I can take the next thing that comes along. You must do the thing you think you can not do!"

Against Carter

Rebate Proposal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sen. John Glenn, D-Ohio, said today he was "leaning against" a Carter administration proposal to provide most Americans with a $50 federal income tax rebate.

The legislation is expected to be at the top of the agenda when Congress returns from an Easter recess next week, Glenn said at a news conference here.

Glenn said he would reserve a decision on his vote until he sees final figures on the projected fiscal impact of a rebate this year.

However, he said he was not convinced that the potential stimulative effect on the economy would outweigh inflationary factors.

"Our whole investment picture has changed since that package was put together last fall," he said of President Carter's proposal.

don't pay any attention to her. She's my wife. She once took a bowl of oatmeal down to the corner drug store and asked the pharmacist to analyze it. She said it "tasted funny," and she was sure I had put roach powder in it. The pharmacist later told her it probably "tasted funny" because there was salt on it instead of sugar, but there was nothing wrong with it.

Another time she accused me of trying to run her down with my car. She has always been a little peculiar, but lately she is getting worse. In case something happens to her I don't want to get blamed. How can I stay in the clear?

LONGVIEW, WASH.

DEAR LONGVIEW: Even more important than your staying in the clear is getting help for your wife who is obviously mentally disturbed. Tell your doctor immediately what you've told me. And don't wait for "something" to happen. It might happen to YOU.

JEAN IN MONTEREY, MEXICO

DEAR JEAN: I have some good news for you and your well-reared sisters. Forget the maternity pantyhose. Some smart pantyhose manufacturer in Boston did indeed create the Fat Fanny Pantyhose, and if you're interested, send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and I'll clue you in.

DEAR ABBY: I have two very important questions: Does epilepsy cause mental retardation or insanity? And is it safe for an epileptic to work, marry, drive a car, have children, and do things other people can do?

TROUBLED

DEAR TROUBLED: Epilepsy is merely a symptom. It cannot "cause" anything.

Most people with epilepsy are of normal intelligence. In most cases, epilepsy patients have far fewer seizures. Most of them lead active, normal lives. Most of them can work, participate in sports, drive a car (if they have complete seizure control), marry, and have children.

In some states epileptics are not permitted to marry, but this attitude is slowly changing.

50th Anniversary To Be Observed

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM D. FOWLER

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Fowler, Route 2 will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary this Sunday with a carry-in dinner and open house. The celebration will be held at their hill farm, located on True Hollow Road. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler were married in Fullerton, Kentucky, April 14, 1927. They are the parents of three sons, William (Rink) Fowler, Ted Fowler, both of Circleville, and Jack Fowler, of Colorado. Three daughters Mrs. Gerald (Margie) Congrove, Mrs. James (Belle) Sowers, and Mrs. Kenneth (Georgianne) Bensonhaver, all of Circleville. They have 28 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

Masonic Temple Site Chapter 90 OES Meeting

Circleville Chapter 90, Order of the Eastern Star, met in regular session Tuesday evening in the Masonic Temple.

The chapter room was arrayed throughout with beautiful new draperies, a project of the Past Matron's Circle.

Honored members present included past matrons Elaine Bowman, Pauline Cook, Mary Radcliffe, Irma Sharpe, Pauline Hundley, Thelma Noecker, Chestora Peters, Miriam Barnhart, Leona Riegel, Betty LeMay, Betty Liston, Donna Foreman, Gladys Shepler, Shirley Hall, Marcelyn Evans, Faye Mahaffey, Virginia Funk, and Kathryn Thomerson, and past patrons, Clarence Radcliffe, Bill Hall, Byron LeMay and Bob Liston.

Recognized were Marie Bennett, Faye Mahaffey, Ina Smith and Lucille Scott as 50-year members; Leona Riegel as grand page of the next grand session; and Pauline Cook, vice-president of the District Association. Presiding at the meeting was Betsy French, worthy matron. Clarence Radcliffe, worthy patron, read a poem by Helen Steiner Rice.

Invitations to attend annual inspections were received from Heber Chapter 62, Williamsport, on April 14; Evergreen Chapter 169, Adelphi, on April 22; Forest Chapter 122, Bloomingburg, on May 2; Concord Chapter 520, Frankfort, on May 3; Royal Chapter 29, Washington C.H., on May 9; Amanda Chapter 150, Amanda, on May 10; and Waverly Chapter 99, Waverly, on May 16.

Members were reminded of the special meeting of the District Association in Washington C.H. on September 24, and the annual District Party on November 12.

A memorial was given and the chapter's altar draped for 30 days in memory of Herman W. Geist, a past worthy grand patron of the Grand Chapter of Ohio.

Special Information Committee reports were given by Mary Radcliffe and Pauline Cook covering the relationship of the local chapter to the Grand Chapter of Ohio, and various projects, services and procedures of the organization.

Elaine Bowman announced the past matrons' circle would meet at the Colony House at 12:30 p.m., April 20.

Following the close of chapter, refreshments were served in the dining room by Helen Swackhamer and her committee, Dorothy Taes, Mildred Younkin, Audrey Turner and Joan Wagner.

The next meeting of the chapter will be April 26, at which time past matrons and past patrons will be honored.

Food For Thought

Cooking Is The In Thing

BERRY GLAZED CHICKEN AND RIBS (Serves 8 to 10)

1 can (1 pound) Ocean Spray jellied cranberry sauce
1 1/2 cups catsup
1/4 cup cider vinegar
1 large onion, finely chopped
1/4 teaspoon tabasco
2 racks spareribs, about 6 pounds (crack ribs at large end in 1 rib pieces for easier cutting later)
2 chickens, 2 pounds each, quartered
Salt and pepper
Parsley (optional)
For barbecue grilling, broil chicken and ribs 8 inches above gray coals about 40-45 minutes, turning chicken and ribs every 10 minutes. Brush both with sauce, and grill sauce side down for 10 minutes. Brush top of chicken and ribs, turn and broil another 10 minutes.

Security Dining In Jimmy's House

WASHINGTON (AP) — How tight is security at the White House? Well, it wasn't tight enough to prevent one worker from getting away with a practical joke for three days.

A White House secretary, whose name will not be revealed to protect the guilty, altered her White House pass by superimposing over her own picture a glossy photo of President Carter's 9-year-old daughter Amy.

Displaying the pass at all times as required, she passed regularly through the White House gates and circulated freely around West Wing offices without being challenged for three days.

On the third day, an observant and irate White House policeman confiscated the pass. The secretary's boss had to make half a dozen phone calls to get it restored so she could come to work.

Washington's fancy expense-account restaurants can only be hurt by a "purity code" being developed for Carter's staff.

Under new White House rules, presidential aides are supposed to pull in their stomachs and accept no luncheon hospitality costing more than $10.

Given the high price tags at Washington's finer eateries, a dinner limit of $15 is even more stringent. If you like salads and other light fare, a modest lunch still can be had for $10 or less at some first rank restaurants, but dinners often exceed $25 a head.

The code of conduct is being prepared by the office of White House counsel Robert Lipshutz. Although the code hasn't become official yet, a Carter aide said the meal limits already are in effect.

For many Carter assistants, the limits are academic. The pace of business is such that few accept dining invitations on a regular basis and many eat sandwiches or hot lunches carried on trays to their desks from the Navy-operated staff mess in the basement beneath Carter's Oval Office.

One nearby restaurant that reports

The Circleville Herald, Thursday April 14, 1977 7

steady patronage by some Carter officials is the Black Steer, two doors away from the more celebrated Sans Souci. The Steer's prices are in line with the hospitality limits.

Bert Lance, director of the Office of Management and Budget, was observed recently in an alcove booth there, feasting on a chopped steak — one of the super economy entrees.

The White House mess is doing its part to promote lunchtime sobriety. Customers for its popular Mexican meal, a Thursday special, once could ease down the spicy fare with a beer or margarita cocktail. The new administration has banished all alcohol at lunchtime, even on Thursdays.

Those who partake of the limited dinner menu at the mess may still order their favorite highballs or cocktails, however.

ORDINANCE NO. 92
AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS IN ANTICIPATION OF THE LEVY AND COLLECTION OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS HERETOFORE LEVIED TO PAY THE COSTS OF IMPROVING JEFFERSON STREET AND STATION STREET, BETWEEN CERTAIN TERMINI, BY GRADING, PAVING, CURBING, DRAINING AND CONSTRUCTING GUTTERS AND STORM SEWERS, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, the Council of the Village of Ashville has heretofore declared the necessity of making certain improvements in Jefferson Street and Station Street, between certain termini, and in order to finance such construction has heretofore authorized and issued in anticipation of the issuance of bonds and the levy and collection of special assessments a note dated October 21, 1975 in the amount of $60,000 which note matured on October 21, 1979; and

WHEREAS, the Clerk, as fiscal officer, has certified to the maximum maturity of the bonds proposed to be issued and as to the estimated life of the improvements so constructed, which maximum maturity may not exceed the twenty-year period provided for the collection of said assessments;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the Village of Ashville, Pickaway County, Ohio:

Section 1. It is necessary to issue bonds of the Village of Ashville (hereinafter sometimes called the Municipality) in the principal sum of $102,000 to pay the property owners' portion, in anticipation of the levy and collection of special assessments heretofore levied, of the costs of improving Jefferson Street and Station Street, between certain termini, by grading, paving, curbing, draining and constructing gutters and storm sewers pursuant to and between the termini set forth in Resolution No. 90, adopted May 19, 1975.

Section 2. Such bonds in the principal sum of $102,000 shall be issued in the denomination of $5,000 each, except bond No. 1 in the denomination of $2,000, shall be numbered from 1 to 21, both inclusive, and shall be dated May 1, 1977. Such bonds shall bear interest at the rate of seven per centum (7 per cent) per annum, payable December 1, 1977, and semi-annually thereafter on the first day of June and the first day of December of each year, until the principal sum is paid; provided, however, that if said bonds are sold bearing a different rate of interest than hereinbefore specified, then such bonds shall bear such rate of interest as may be provided in the resolution of Council approving the award thereof. Such bonds shall mature as follows:

$2,000 on December 1, 1978 and $5,000 on December 1 in each of the years from 1979 to 1986, both inclusive.

Such maturities shall be determined to be in substantially equal annual installments. The principal and interest of said bonds shall be payable at the office of The Ashville Bank of Ashville, Ashville, Ohio.

Section 3. Such bonds shall express upon their faces the purpose for which they are issued and that they are issued in pursuance of this ordinance, shall be signed by the Mayor and the Clerk, provided that one of such signatures may be a facsimile signature, and shall bear the seal of the corporation or a facsimile thereof. The interest coupons attached to such bonds shall bear the facsimile signature of the Clerk.

Section 4. Such bonds shall be first offered at par and accrued interest to the officer in charge of the Bond Retirement Fund, and if such officer refuses to take any or all of such bonds, then such bonds not so taken shall be advertised for public sale and sold in the manner provided by law. The proceeds from the sale of such bonds, except the premium and accrued interest thereon, shall be used for the purpose for which such bonds are issued and for no other purpose; the premium and accrued interest received from such sale shall be transferred to the Bond Retirement Fund to be applied to the payment of the principal and interest of such bonds in the manner provided by law.

Section 5. The Municipality hereby covenants that it will restrict the use of the proceeds of the bonds in such manner and to such extent, if any, as may be necessary, after taking into account reasonable expectations at the time the debt is incurred, so that they will not constitute arbitrage bonds under Section 100(c) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations prescribed under that section. The fiscal officer or any other officer, including the Clerk, having responsibility with respect to the issuance of such bonds is authorized and directed to give an appropriate certificate on behalf of the Municipality for inclusion in the transcript of proceedings, setting forth the facts, estimates and circumstances regarding the amount and use of the proceeds of such bonds pursuant to said Section 100(c) and regulations thereunder.

Section 6. For the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of bonds, promptly when and as the same fall due and also to provide a fund sufficient to discharge such serial bonds at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied on all the taxable property in the Municipality in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period such bonds are to run in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay the interest upon such bonds as and when the same fall due and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of such serial bonds at maturity, which tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax required by Section 11, Article XII, Ohio Constitution; provided, however, that in each year when the assessments anticipated by such bonds are available for the payment of such bonds and are appropriated for such purpose, the amount of such tax shall be reduced by the amount of the assessments as appropriated.

Section 7. Such tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed, certified, levied and collected by the same officers, in the same manner and at the same time that taxes for general purposes for each of said years are certified, extended and collected. Such tax shall be placed before and in preference to all other taxes and shall be paid together with all interest collected on the same, shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of the interest and principal of such bonds when and as the same fall due.

Section 8. That all installments of such assessments and all portions thereof, together with interest thereon, shall be applied to the payment of such bonds and the interest as the same shall become due to no other purpose whatsoever.

Section 9. It is hereby determined that all acts, conditions and things necessary to be done precedent to and in the issuing of such bonds in order to make the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Municipality have happened, been done and performed in regular and due form as required by law, that the full faith, credit and revenue of the Municipality shall be and are hereby irrevocably pledged for the prompt payment of the principal and interest thereof at maturity, and that no limitation of indebtedness or taxation, either statutory or constitutional, shall have been exceeded in the issuance of such bonds.

Section 10. The Clerk of this Council is hereby authorized and directed to certify a copy of this ordinance to the County Auditor.

Section 11. It is found and determined that all formal actions of this Council concerning and relating to the passage of this ordinance were taken in an open meeting of this Council, and that all deliberations of this Council and of any of its committees that resulted in such formal action, were in meetings open to the public, in compliance with all legal requirements, including Section 121-25 of the Ohio Revised Code.

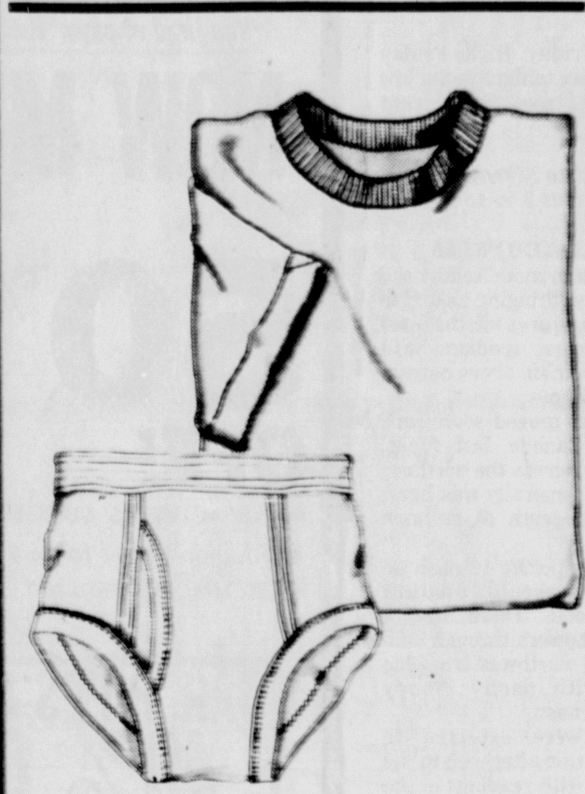

Section 12. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety of this Municipality, and for the further reason that the prompt issuance of the bonds herein provided for is necessary to preserve the credit of the Municipality by retiring the outstanding note issued in anticipation of the issuance of the bonds herein provided for and effect from and immediately after its passage.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A cold front was to move southward through Ohio today, bringing an end to the record temperatures of the past few days. Afternoon readings still were expected to remain above normal for this time of year.

As the cold front moved southward into Ohio from Canada last night, showers occurred across the northern counties. Rainfall generally was light, ranging from one-tenth of an inch down.

The front was expected to push on south today and weaken in southern Ohio this afternoon. There was a chance of some showers through central and parts of northwestern Ohio this morning with partly cloudy weather this afternoon.

Temperatures were expected to level off in the 60s this afternoon in the northern counties with readings in the low to mid 70s in the south.

Friday will be partly cloudy but another low pressure system over the central plains threatens showers again over Ohio for the weekend, possibly beginning as soon as Friday night.

A-Aaaam Takes Win In Phone Book Race

SEATTLE (AP) — A-Aaaam and four other surprise entries nosed out favored A-Aaabbott for the first time in eight years to capture the alphabet battle in Seattle's telephone book.

In this year's book the A-Aaaam Economy Home Burglar Alarm Co., is trailed closely by A-Aaaam Lindy's Feather Dusters, the A-Aaaam Washington Electronic Instrument Sales and Repair Co., and A-Aaaam Wholesale Retail Mail Order Discount Co.

Tito Blanco, owner of A-Aaabbott

Insurance Agency, acknowledged he liked being first since "there is an advantage" with customers. "Some people always start at the front."

"We're not quite as bad as some metro directories in the East," explained Charles Rowell, a phone company spokesman. For instance, the Manhattan directory in New York city lists one business which strung together 10 "A's" — the AAA AAA AAA American Flag Co., he said.

He added that he doubts there is any real benefit to being No. 1.

Special Easter services were held in all three of the local churches on last Sunday.

The infant daughter of Micky and Vickie Smith was dedicated in the Church of God at the morning service. A large crowd attended their contata in the evening.

At Trinity Methodist Church, James Christopher, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Blain Ayers was baptised and at the Laurel Hills, Troy Lee, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Starner was baptised. On Palm Sunday, at Laurel Hills, Mrs. Fern Smith was baptised and joined the church and Mrs. Florence Iles, Colis and Rob Hudgins transferred their membership from other churches. Minister of the Church of God is the Rev. Lynn Summers; at Trinity United Methodist the minister is the Rev. Jacob Lehman and the minister at Laurel Hills is the Rev. Robert Hudgins.

Also baptised on Palm Sunday at Laurel Hills was Anitra, little daughter of Mike and Troy DeLong.

Funeral services were held on April 2 in the Fairhaven Home chapel at Upper Sandusky for Mrs. Nellie Shupe Reedy (90 years) who died March 30 at the home. The daughter of the late William and Hannah Markel Shupe, she is survived by one sister, Miss Blanch Shupe and two step-sons, Edward Reedy of Virginia Beach, Va. and Richard Reedy of Columbus. Both Mrs. Reedy and her sister Blanch have lived at Fairhaven Home for several years. The Shupe family home is now owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strous. Mrs. Reedy was buried at Green Summit Cemetery, Adelphi. Mrs. Horace (Helen Shupe) Hubble was a niece of Mrs. Reedy.

On Palm Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fetherolf of Carroll and his mother, Mrs. Bessie Fetherolf attended services at the Bethel-Pine Church and Bessie who celebrated her 90th birthday on April 5, played the piano during the service. Later that day, Mrs. Fetherolf, her daughter Mildred, Howard and Mae, and her sons and daughters-in-law, Melvin and Louise Fetherolf and Rollie and Alice Fetherolf of Lancaster were guests of another daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller (Florence) and Penny of near Tarlton for a birthday celebration.

On Monday evening, Mrs. Fetherolf was surprised with still another party at her home planned by her daughter Mildred. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fetherolf of Carroll; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fetherolf of Lancaster; Mrs. Florence Miller and Penny of Rt. 2, Amanda; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pritchard and Matthew, Mrs. Jean Valentine, Preston and Brady of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Speakman, Danny, Derick and Tammy, Richard Fetherolf and Mae Bias of Rt. 1, Laurelville. Unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Fetherolf of Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde (Blanche) Azbell of Florida and Dallas Fetherolf of S. Bloomingville.

There will be a showing of Indian Jewelry and Crafts at Calico Cottage in Laurelville on April 15 and 16, by Mrs. Normaliee Moreno of New Mexico. The Friday showings will be from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. and on Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Mrs. Moreno, who is a sister-in-law of Natibida and Shirley Moreno of Laurelville goes to many of the Indian reservations and various tribes to buy the beautiful and genuine pieces of jewelry she will be showing.

The Senior Citizen meeting was held April 11 in the Laurel Hills Church. After a 6 p.m. carry-in dinner, a business meeting was conducted by the President Ernest Forster. The secretary's report was given by Celesta Hoy in the absence of Mrs. Peggy Butts and Damon Pontious gave the treasurers report. Coming activities for the club as well as a name for the organization were discussed. The next meeting will be May 9, the second Monday evening of the month, at the Trinity U.M. Church on Laurel Street.

Reports from the Thompson family is that Bob Thompson of Whittier, Calif, who underwent open heart surgery two weeks ago is doing nicely and has returned to his home. I should have known I'd get mixed up on his 12 sisters and brothers if I tried to name them and I did, so let's try it one more time: Bernice Woodward, Sara Mae Disbennett and Jack of the Laurelville area; Alice Jones and John of Hallsville; Jean, Edith, Arla and Betty of Lancaster, Ruth, Charles and George of Calif. There!

Mrs. Margaret Johnson is spending a few weeks with her sister and brother-in-law and family, George and Charlotte Ash while she recuperates from an unusual hip problem. Several years ago she suffered a broken hip and x-rays recently showed a small fracture of the same bone. Friday visitors of Margaret and the Ash family included Jack Binkley and son Jeff of Reynoldsburg, Kim and Violet Parsons, Sally Crabtree and Sue Cooley of Kingston and Ann Haughn. Easter day guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ash, Cheryl and Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. George Ash Jr. and Michael, Violet Parsons of Kingston and Billie Sue Johnson and son Jonathon.

Tickets to the Donkey basketball game which will be played on the evening of May 7 in the Laurelville school gym may be purchased at the Salt Creek Valley Bank, White Hardware and Dave Hinton's Barber Shop in Laurelville and at Junior and Rozella's Grocery in South Perry. It is being sponsored by the Laurelville PTO.

Don't forget the square dance on April 29 at the Tarlton Armory sponsored by the Auxiliary of the Laurelville Fire Dept. Proceeds go to buy new fire fighting equipment.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ebert were entertained on Easter Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ebert and daughters Terri and Darcy in Laurelville. Present for a carry-in dinner were Lester and Margie Ebert; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ebert, Mitchell, and Joey Ebert and Renee Nida; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ebert and Matthew; Mr. and Mrs. Monte Bainter (Nancy Ebert) and son; Mr. and Mrs. Larry McNichols (Sue Ebert) Todd, Tammy and Tabitha; Alice Ebert Dillie and son Kenny.

A carry-in dinner at the home of Mrs. Zola Flanagan on Easter Sunday was enjoyed by: Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Strous, Steve, Tracy and Kathy; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hupp, Terry, Pat and Melinda; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Strous; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hupp and Aaron; Mrs. Hattie White; Mr. and Mrs. Clendell Reid and Celesta Hoy.

Easter Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Wolf included Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Eveland; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carter, Pam, Beth and Angie; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Eveland; Mr. and Mrs. Marty Eveland and Marcy Kay. Unable to be with the family were Roger Weaver and Mrs. Wolf's sister, Vira Davis.

Mrs. Darwin Eimers (Candy Newland) and baby daughter Dawn Marie of Sumner, Iowa, arrived by plane on April 4 to spend a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Newland and other Ohio relatives. They were joined by Mr. Eimers on Saturday and they returned home on the 11th. It was the baby's first visit with her grandparents.

The children and grandchildren of Hubert Thompson of Route 2,

Laurelville, joined him for an Easter day dinner on last Sunday.

Easter day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hartsaugh were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Faigley, Steve and Tim of Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hart-saugh and Doug of Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weigerding (Marvine Lindsey) of Dayton visited Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Motis Lindsey and her sister Mrs. Helen Harmon.

The Rev. and Mrs. Jacob Lehman entertained to dinner on Easter Sunday, their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester St. Clair and children and Mr. and Mrs. Blain Ayers and children of New Straitsville.

Holiday weekend guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Hudgins and son Rob were Mrs. Hudgin's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leonard of Manns Choice, Pa.

Remember the Laurelville PTO at the school gym on the evening of April 18. Devotions will be conducted by the Pleasant Hill Church. Special music by the Haddox family. The program will be given by the Kindergarten class.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Denny Drum of Route 2, Laurelville last weekend were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Karshner (Jean Ruth Drum) of Wadsworth, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Higgins (Sondra Karshner) of Wooster; Mrs. Mable Drum Hooks, son Denny and daughter Mary Alicia of Mich. Sunday dinner guests at the Drumm home included the Karshners, Dennis and Sondra Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bainter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Gatwood and family. Mrs. Bainter and Mrs. Gatwood furnished the Easter dinner. So that Denny Drum's 45 years record of never missing Easter services would not be broken, he and Ruby and their family all attended morning services at Laurel Hills Church. Denny is recuperating from a broken hip.

Persons of Hocking County may enroll in "Your Weight and You" program by mail by sending name, address and phone number and registration fee to Mrs. Beverly Donahey, Hocking County Extension Agent, Home Economics, 150 N. Homer Ave., Logan, O. 43138 before April 19. The course consists of one mailing per week in a ten part series. Participants will learn to set realistic goals, how to plan their diet by the use of the basic four food groups, the importance of exercise in weight control, how to shop for and prepare foods which are low in calories and high in nutrients, how to identify "fad diets" and how to re-educate their eating habits.

Last Tuesday over night guests of Mrs. Cora Rose were her sister, Mrs. Velma Adams of Mendon, O., her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Pennell and her niece, and Mrs. Dorothy Keihl all of Convoys, Ohio.

Army Starts Withdrawal Of Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Army has started withdrawing its nuclear-tipped Sergeant ground-to-ground missiles from South Korea.

Gen. Bernard W. Rogers, Army chief of staff, also disclosed in an interview that U.S. forces have begun turning over to the South Koreans their Nike-Hercules anti-aircraft missiles with conventional explosive warheads.

The moves, which will reduce U.S. ground troops in South Korea by about 1,300, were planned during the Ford administration.

However, they mesh with President Carter's stated intention of removing all 32,000 U.S. ground troops from South Korea over a four to five year span. Carter has said: "I would envision a continuation of American air cover for South Korea over a long period of time."

Rogers said the pullout of the Sergeant missiles "will not result in a significant reduction" in fire power because other U.S. units will cover their missions.

The Army chief of staff did not elaborate, but it is known that the U.S. Army has guns in Korea capable of firing nuclear shells. The U.S. Air Force also maintains nuclear weapons for its fighter bombers based in Korea.

The Sergeant, a mobile weapon with a maximum range of 135 miles, has been backing up U.S. and South Korean troops on the peninsula for about 13 years.

Talks Resume In GM Plant Strike

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Negotiations were scheduled to resume today in Detroit in an attempt to settle a strike by auto workers at a General Motors Corp. parts facility.

The strike, idling 4,700 workers, entered its fourth day today.

Members of Local 696 of the United Auto Workers union streamed out of the two Dayton plants which comprise the Delco-Moraine Division Monday when agreement on local issues was not reached by a strike deadline.

Talks resumed Tuesday and continued virtually without interruption for 12 hours.

Bargainers returned to the table Wednesday morning but recessed the meeting to travel to Detroit where international union officials and additional company negotiators were expected to join the talks.

Survivors

DALLAS (AP)—Years from now, when no survivors of Pearl Harbor are left, scholars will be able to hear the voices of more than 100 Texans who were eyewitnesses to what happened Dec. 7, 1941.

Dr. Ron Marcello of North Texas State University, coordinator of the university's oral history collection and executive secretary of the National Oral History Association, based at NTSU, recently interviewed yet another Pearl Harbor survivor here.

Merle Newbauer, subject of the interview, was on the battleship Maryland on the historic day. A seaman 1.C. then, he finished as a chief petty officer, and helped organize the Association of Pearl Harbor Survivors in Texas.

"I've visited all five Texas chapters of the association, and found nearly all my inter-viewees there," said Dr. Marcello.

U.S. Asks For Grain Consideration

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is telling other countries that consideration must be given to corn and other "coarse" grains used as livestock feed when talking about global food grain reserves and the problems of feeding hungry people.

Although primary attention is focused on wheat and other cereal grains, U.S. delegates at a Food and Agriculture Organization meeting in Rome are also concerned about feed grain. The American delegates point to what happened to the national livestock industry a few years ago when prices of corn and other commodities soared.

The meeting, which began Wednesday, involves the FAO's committee on world food security. The FAO, an agency of the United Nations, includes most food exporting and importing countries. The Soviet Union and China are not represented, however.

According to briefing papers prepared for the three-man U.S. delegation — which includes representatives from the Agriculture and State departments plus one from the U.S. embassy in Rome — the supply and handling of feed grains are "even more important" than cereals when there are extreme global crop shortages for two or more years in a row.

"This sector of the grain economy must respond to changing world conditions if there is to be world food security both in the short run and the long run," the papers said. "Otherwise, in extreme situations, the world's food needs will not be met."

The papers said that more than 400 million metric tons of grain, primarily in developed countries, are used annually for livestock feed and industrial purposes. A metric ton is 2,205 pounds.

By comparison, total world production of all grains, excluding rice, is estimated at a record of about 1.105 billion tons in the current 1976-77 year. About 692.1 million tons are coarse grains, including corn, barley, oats, sorghum and rye.

"Experience in recent years has shown that if market forces are allowed to operate, even partially, increased prices will cause a contraction in the amount of grain used for nonfood purposes," the papers said.

In 1974-75, for example, high prices forced U.S. livestock producers to cut back on feeding corn and other grains to animals by more than 35 million tons from the previous year. The cumulative decline since 1972-73 has been about 100 million tons.

The report refers to the free-wheeling export policy which prevailed for most of the time in those years. As grain prices soared because the Soviet Union, China, Japan and other countries were willing to pay cash for U.S. commodities, livestock producers simply cut back on the grain-fed production of beef, pork, poultry and milk.

According to the briefing papers, delegates to the Rome meeting are prepared to tell other countries that "the U.S. contraction in the amount of grain feed was obviously very hard on the U.S. livestock industry" and could have been lessened if other developed countries had not been so interested in protecting themselves.

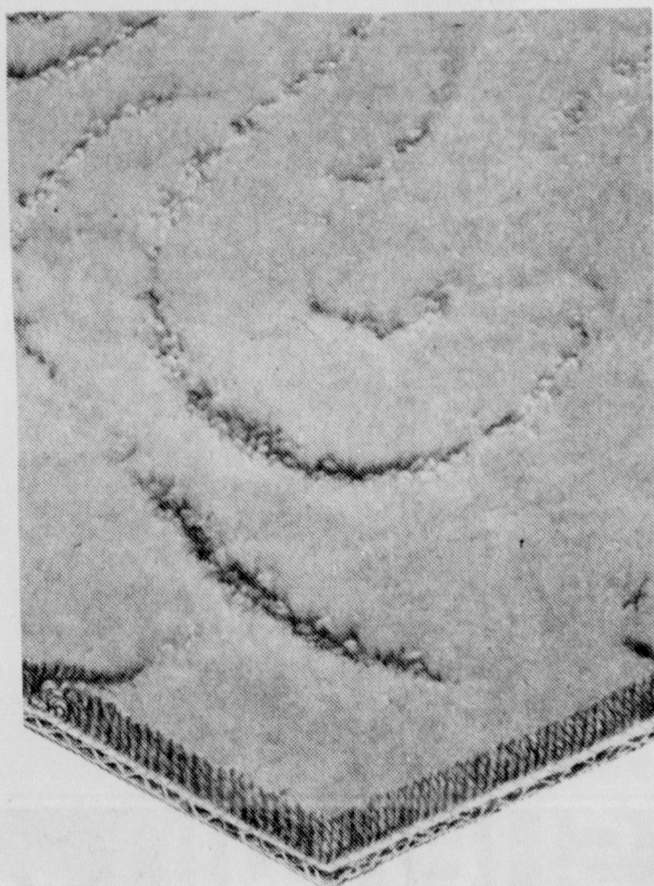

"Most other countries insulate their grain economies from world market forces and consequently the U.S. bore the brunt of the adjustment," the papers said.

Rainstorms Cover Country

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A band of rainstorms, locally heavy at times, rolled out of southwestern Texas into New Mexico overnight while rainshowers scattered across New England and northern Ohio.

The National Weather Service forecast another day of unseasonably warm temperatures in southern Appalachia, the Carolinas and mid-Atlantic coast states. Normal cool weather was predicted for the Pacific Northwest.

A flash flood warning was out for south-central Texas overnight.

Rain and snow showers were reported across western Montana and northern Idaho.

Skies were clear across the southern and central Atlantic Coast states, the Southeast, Lower Mississippi Valley, Ohio Valley and much of the Great Lakes region. Clear skies also prevail across a wide part of the Rocky Mountain region and from Oregon into central California.

Despite significant rainfall across extreme northern California during the last several weeks, the snowpack in the Sierra Nevada Mountains remains less than 25 per cent of normal, virtually assuring the lowest water supplies in recorded history in that area.

Los Angeles reported that although it has received about 70 per cent of its normal rainfall, water supply problems will exist since nearly all of its water comes from the north where drought conditions are most severe.

Predawn temperatures across the nation ranged from 27 degrees at Craig, Colo., and Hibbing, Minn., to 78 at Needles, Calif.

Mild temperatures were forecast today for the Great Plains across the Mississippi Valley and also through New England and the rest of the south Atlantic Coast states.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY — Peter Rabbit and the other characters in his story are 75-years-old this year, and the Pickaway County Library is celebrating with a birthday party Monday. The festivities will begin at 1:30 p.m.

Librarian Mrs. Fritz Cox said Peter and Farmer MacGregor will be friendly for the occasion, and poses the two stuffed characters side by side. The figures were made by Mrs. Penny LaRock.

County Library Honors Peter Rabbit's Birthday

Seventy-five years ago, Beatrix Potter created Peter Rabbit. Since then, countless numbers of children have held their breath wondering if Peter could ever escape from Farmer MacGregor's garden and make it safely back to his home with mama and Flopsy and Mopsy.

In honor of this classic childhood character and in connection with National Library Week, the Pickaway County District Public Library is holding a giant birthday party with appeal for all ages.

Since Peter had an affinity for gardens, the library will be showing a delightful film about one of America's most charming gardeners. Ruth Stout is 90 years young. "Ruth Stout's Garden" is a journey into the life of this nonagenarian who writes books, lectures to garden clubs and displays a grace and good humor born of the joy of living.

A display of Beatrix Potter characters made by Penny LaRock, an area resident, will be sure to fascinate the viewers. These works of art will also be shown at the Dogwood Festival.

For the young and young in heart, Karen Amey will present a script about Peter Rabbit with her puppet people.

And, a birthday cake will add a sweet note to the program. It is provided by the Friends of the Library.

Join this celebration at 1:30 p.m., Monday in the Reference Room of the library.

Owens-Illinois Reports

Lower 1st Quarter Earnings

TOLEDO — Severe winter weather and escalating costs, particularly for labor, resulted in lower earnings for Owens-Illinois in the first quarter of 1977 as compared with the record first quarter of 1976, Edwin D. Dodd, chairman and chief executive officer, reported.

Earnings were $17.9 million, or 60 cents a share, compared with earnings of $23.6 million, or 79 cents a share, before an extraordinary gain, in the first quarter of the previous year. Sales totaled $679.4 million, an increase of 7 per cent from sales of $633.2 million in the first quarter last year. "New three-year labor contracts, which the company entered into during the first quarter, provided for wage increases retroactive to January 3, 1977, for most glass container hourly employees," Dodd said. "However, the company was unable to reflect these increased costs in its selling prices during the first quarter. Since then, selling prices have been increased for glass containers, containerboard, and corrugated shipping containers, as well as several lines in the Closure & Metal Container, Kimble, and Lilly Divisions.

Per-share earnings reflect the effect of a two-for-one split of Owens-Illinois common shares in the form of a 100 per cent common-share dividend distributed to shareholders on April 8. Per-share earnings for the period are restated.

In the first quarter of 1976, an extraordinary gain of $7,976,000 resulted from sales of Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corporation common stock, which brought net earnings for that period to $31.6 million, or $1.07 a common share.

"As we look ahead, prospects for significantly improved earnings, particularly in the packaging area of Domestic Operations, appear to be excellent because of a strengthening of demand and implementation of price increases covering most domestic packaging products," Mr. Dodd said.

"Based on our current assessment of worldwide economic conditions, we believe that for all of 1977 Owens-Illinois will achieve record results for the fifth consecutive year," Mr. Dodd said.

In International Operations, consolidated sales increased significantly, and consolidated earnings were substantially higher than those of a year ago, Dodd reported. Major improvements within International Operations were achieved by affiliates, primarily producing glass products, in Germany, Spain, Belgium, Mexico, and Colombia.

"We are optimistic about prospects for improved earnings for the year," Dodd said. "This optimism is based on progress made during the difficult first quarter in cost management programs and better alignment of prices with production costs, as well as the great strength of our basic product lines."

Woman Reunited With Pet Hippo

CLEVELAND (AP) — Pam Pervola called to her pet, Wolee, and the 467-pound hippopotamus came lumbering over to give her a kiss.

That was the scene at Cleveland's Metroparks Zoo Wednesday, when Mrs. Pervola was reunited with the pygmy hippo she raised at her home in Liberia.

Mrs. Pervola, whose husband, John, was general manager of Liberia Mining Co., said she got Wolee from a hunter when the hippo was only a couple of days old and weighed just 10 pounds.

She said Wolee, now age 3, slept on the front porch of their home like a watchdog.

"He always knocked on the front door with his nose for food or attention," she said. "If he didn't get either, he would toss the patio furniture onto the driveway."

Wolee tagged along every morning when she took her infant daughter, Jennifer, for rides in the stroller, said Mrs. Pervola, and he would plop into the wading pool and let Jennifer ride on his broad back.

Radio Patrol Holds Awards Banquet

The Pickaway County Radio Patrol held its annual Awards Banquet April 7 at the George McDowell Exchange School.

Those receiving outstanding awards were Orville and Paul Berry for the work they did during the bad winter storm. They worked day and night digging people and cars out of the snow covered roads.

Wiley Williams received an outstanding award for his faithfulness to club activities.

Those receiving first year awards were James Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Graham, Terry and Mike Hart, Georgia Starkey, Steve Walker, Butch McFarland, Nevin Johnson, Fred Liff and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rayburn.

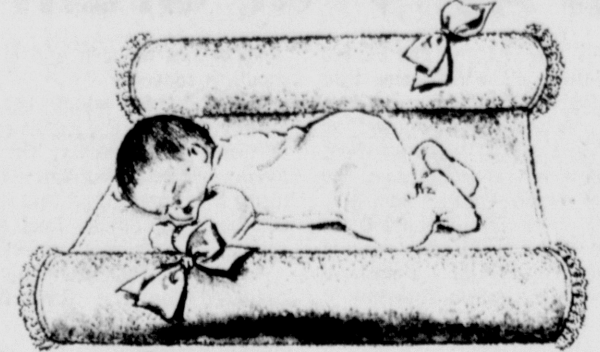

Members of the welcome, newspaper and cheer committees received awards also.

Keith Dumm was accepted as a new member.

The cheer committee reported that Jim Arnold was in Berger Hospital and members could send cards.

The radio patrol sponsored a round and square dance with proceeds going to the Easter Seal Society. It was announced that there will be a dance April 23 at the Tarlton Armory.

The front wheels and tons of masonry fell to the road below, but nobody was underneath at the time of the crash. The driver and nine passengers were treated and released from a local hospital.

Sneek-A-Peek

AT BOOKS IN THE CHILDREN'S LIBRARY

National Library Week is only three days away. If you haven't been to our public library lately, make this your week to visit us. We've undergone some changes in the last few months that will surprise you!

Patrons of the Children's Room, has the fine weather we've been having given you a yen for traveling? Even if you can't really go away right now, you can feed your appetite for roving with books from the library.

Dreaming of an ocean cruise? "The Great Days of Sail" can be your ticket to an imaginary one. You'll begin in a Viking longboat and sail through a thousand years of different vessels until you reach our modern yachts. Large color illustrations accompany this elementary history of sailing. (623.82)

If you want to learn about other types of carriers read "The Complete Junior Encyclopedia of Transportation." Conestoga wagons, canals, jet propulsion, trucking, and space travel are only a few of the topics covered in this book which provides almost all necessary information about transportation methods for the young reader. (380.5)

Now that you've learned how to go, why not take a trip to Florida? With a little imagination and our book "Everglades National Park" you'll find yourself smack in the middle of this famous park. Join a park ranger for a nature hike through the swamp where you'll encounter alligators, snakes, exotic trees and birds, and other interesting wild life. (917.59)

It — heaven forbid! — you're stuck

inside during this wonderful weather, make the best of a bad situation by using a little magic. "Magic Naturally" explains some scientific principles and employs them to create magic tricks. (793.8)

Still bored? Make your own playmates as you learn origami. "Paper Folding for Beginners" and "Folding Paper Puppets" (featuring Shari Lewis) both illustrate how to make toys, simple puppets, and inexpensive party decorations by folding paper. (745.54)

Still lonely? Learn to draw yourself some companions! After you study "How to Draw Cartoons" you'll be ready to sketch all sorts of different characters! And, if you want to give them something to work with, get helpful hints from "How to Draw Motors, Machines and Tools." (741.5)

Whatever your needs — homework, hobby, or fun — let the library help you satisfy them. And, while you're in the Children's Room this week, enjoy the art work of local youth on display. Maybe one of the pieces will be yours!

Another Judge Appointed To Try Sheriff

LOGAN, Ohio (AP) — A judge from another county will be appointed to conduct the trial of former Hocking County Sheriff Paul Hartman, who has been charged with theft in office.

Hartman entered a plea of innocent Monday before Hocking County Common Pleas Judge James Stillwell who freed the ex-sheriff on a $2,500 bond. Judge Stillwell said he would step aside and ask the state Supreme Court for a replacement.

A trial date will be set by the appointed judge.

Book Awards

NEW YORK (AP) — Three authors were recently honored for books published in 1976.

The American Revolution Round Table awarded its prize for the best book on the American Revolution to Charles Bracelen Flood for this "Rise, and Fight Again," a history of four American defeats and how they were overcome. The Society of Children's Book Writers gave its Golden Kite Award to Eve Bunting for her young people's novel, "One More Flight."

The winner of the award for the best book of belles letters in English written by a non-native speaker of English from Africa or Asia was T. Obikaram Echewa. The award is given jointly by the English Speaking Union of the U.S. and "Books Abroad," a literary quarterly sponsored by the University of Oklahoma. Mr. Echewa, a Nigerian, won the award for his first novel, "The Land's Lord."

Martha Moore Candidate For GOP State Job

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Republican State Chairman Kent McGough added the name of national committeewoman Martha Moore Wednesday to a growing list of candidates for his job.

McGough announced earlier this week that he would resign the $40,000 a year post on May 15.

While he stopped short of endorsing Miss Moore, current vice chairman of the state party, McGough said he thought she had the credentials for the position and should be considered in speculation about his successor.

The retiring chairman has said he will not make a specific recommendation for the slot, but indicates that he expects to have plenty of input.

A new chairman is expected to be chosen at a May 3 meeting of the state party central and executive committee.

Hamilton County Chairman Earl Barnes and Former Lt. Gov. John W. Brown are among others prominently mentioned for the post. Brown currently serves as Ohio Lakelands Administrator.

Miss Moore, a speech professor at Muskingum College, could not be reached for comment at her home in Cambridge.

McGough would prefer a nonideological chairman who, like himself, concentrates on the nuts and bolts of party organization.

"I think philosophy is perhaps secondary to having the ability to lead," he said.

McGough was interviewed on WCMH Television.

State Tax Collector Pays For Mistakes

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The state's top tax collector is a little red faced today. He goofed figuring out his own state income tax return.

Walter Skelton, 44, who has headed the state Revenue Division since 1972, said Wednesday he made two mistakes.

He checked the box for a joint return, although he and his wife, Martha, filed separately. "That was just a silly mistake," Skelton said.

He also looked at the wrong tax table when he computed his tax and found that he was entitled to a refund. "That one hurt," he said. "When we got the error straightened out, it cut my refund down $100."

"I betcha people who hear about this are going to be calling me and saying, 'Now you know what it's like,'" he added.

The errors were found when the return was audited by division employees.

Skelton had decreed that his return and the returns of other administrators in his division would be audited every year.

CHS, LEHS Girls Attend Girls' State

It is with much pride that the American Legion Auxiliary announces the official opening of its 31st Annual Session of Buckeye Girls' State on Saturday, June 11.

This mythical State, which began in the late Forties with 304 citizens, has grown until this year's attendance is expected again to surpass 1,250. Girls from all corners of Ohio will participate in this eight-day "government-in-action" leadership training workshop which will be held on the campus of Capital University, Columbus, Ohio.

Each of the Girls' State representatives has completed her junior year in high school and has been awarded a scholarship by her local American Legion Auxiliary or by other interested groups working through an Auxiliary Unit. Other qualifications are that she be under 18 years of age, not married; recommended by her school principal or superintendent stating that she is an outstanding student and possesses high qualities of scholarship, definite interest in American government, high moral character, courage, self-reliance, mental alertness and a willingness to take initiative and to assume responsibility. All of these contribute to the girl's participation in city, county, and state government elections and functioning. Too, any qualified girl, regardless of race, creed or military family affiliation is eligible. American Legion members or relatives do not rate any priority consideration. A non-citizen can attend Girls' State but can not vote at any of the elections held.

The aim of Buckeye Girls' State is "To Inculcate a Sense of Individual Responsibility to Community, State and Nation." With this objective each girl is assigned to a party, either Nationalist or Federalist; to one of the 25 cities which are named for famous Ohio-born women; and one of the five counties which are named for Past Department Presidents of the Ohio American Legion Auxiliary. The counties this year will be Clark, Froyley, Halliday, Moore and Rarey. Approximately fifty girls will make up the population of each city with a city government advisor and a counselor. It is here that the government functioning begins and is carried out by each citizen's participation in county and state government activities, guided by numerous staff members. These are well qualified people, some highly trained in their field, some civic leaders in their communities and others active in government, holding elective or appointive offices in local, county and state levels.

The hub of activities through the week include the Campus Center Dining Room, where about 1400 Girls' State representatives and staff are fed in an hour three times a day; the Work Shop, where innovative campaign and city signs are made; the Post Office in Campus Center; the Girls' State Bank, in which the girls may deposit and withdraw their money; and of course, the entire campus facilities in which the actual governmental functioning takes place.

There are programs emphasizing the various phases of government beginning immediately upon arrival of the girls:

Saturday afternoon, an orientation and discussion of political party organization will be offered and that evening the formal opening will feature Lakes Administrator John W. Brown as the keynote speaker.

On Sunday, the citizens will determine their party's candidates at the city, county and state caucuses. Sunday evening, city elections will be held. To high-light city government, on Monday evening the Mayors of each city will take the oath of office.

The Primary Election will take place on Tuesday morning, with the General election being held that afternoon. Results will be announced later in the day, and on Wednesday all phases of government swing into action.

The Inaugural Banquet and Inauguration Ceremonies, always a lovely, formal affair, will feature many highlights. The Honorable C. William O'Neill, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court will give the Oath of office to the elected State officials. Plans include The Honorable James A. Rhodes, Governor, State of Ohio, to deliver the main address of the evening. Also present for appropriate remarks will be dignitaries of the Ohio American Legion Auxiliary, The American Legion and the Forty and Eight.

Thursday, a bus tour will include points of interest in Columbus and a visit to the State Capital where Girls' State officials will meet with their counterparts. That evening, following a picnic at Bernlohr Field, Military Service representatives and Mrs. Nodine Henninger Miller will discuss the educated woman and her roles.

Friday morning a program will be presented on the Ohio court system with the Honorable Alba L. Whiteside and the Honorable Georgena Howell, Judges, heading the panel. The status of women in government will be the topic of discussion Friday evening when Mrs. Emily Leedy, Director of Women's Services, Bureau of Employment Services; Honorable Ethel G. Swanbeck, Representative, and The Honorable Gertrude W. Donahey, Ohio State Treasurer will appear on the program.

The Honorable Alan E. Norris, Representative and member of Ohio Constitution Revision Commission will analyze the Ohio Constitution on Saturday morning. Dr. John T. Bonner Jr., Vice President of Ohio State University brings a timely message to close the program the last Saturday evening.

All Buckeye Girls' State activities are supervised by a nine-member Board of Directors from the Ohio American Legion Auxiliary. Serving on this Board are: Mrs. Lester M. Merritt, Columbus, Director; Mrs. Henry F. Patro, Toledo, Department President, Ohio American Legion Auxiliary; Mrs. Billy E. Peeples, Bradford, Department 1st Vice President, Ohio American Legion Auxiliary, Miss Anne Eshelman, Zanesville, Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. Edward S. Ullum, Lebanon, Director of Government; Mrs. Arthur F. Hrabak, Maynard, Director of Counselors; Mrs. Andrew Garcia, Conneaut, Director of Music and Recreation; Mrs. Gwen Gallatin, R.N., Columbiana, Director of Health; and Mrs. George E. Sallot, Parma Heights, Director of Public Relations.

From Logan Elm High School, Cheryl Louise Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hawkins of Oak Park, and Linda Margaret Rhoads, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Rhoads of Morris-Salem Road are the delegates to the Buckeye Girls' State gathering.

Alternates from Logan Elm will be Brenda Bolender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Bolender, Route 4, and Tina Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woods of Shoemaker Road.

The Logan Elm students are sponsored by the Booster Club.

Circleville High School's delegate sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary 134 is Natalie Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Martin of Bell Station Road.

The Auxiliary's alternate is Ruth Obermeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Obermeyer, Hawthorn Drive.

Chosen as a delegate and sponsored by the Circleville Business and Professional Women's Club is Alyse Bergen, daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Bergen, Park St. The BPW's alternate is Terri Strawser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Strawser, Edwards Road.

Chenier, Powers Give Fitch Fits

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — Coach Bill Fitch of the Cleveland Cavaliers may find it hard to believe Washington's Phil Chenier was ever in a slump, but he's convinced referee Richie Powers is in a rut.

Chenier, who hit only 16 per cent of his shots during a seven-game stretch late in the National Basketball Association regular season, scored 38 points Wednesday night as the Bullets downed Cleveland 109-100 to open the Eastern Conference preliminary round playoff.

The game was the only playoff action Wednesday night, and the best-of-three series will continue Friday night on Cleveland's home court. Golden State, down 0-1 and on the brink of elimination, plays at Detroit in the only game on tonight's card.

Washington, upset in the conference semifinals by Cleveland last year, was in command all the way and led 84-59 before the Cavs poured in 41 fourth quarter points.

Fitch praised Washington's effort, but spent most of his time blasting Powers, one of two nonstriking NBA officials who worked the game along with Roger McCann of the Eastern League.

"I'm not saying anything about the guys filling in," Fitch said of the substitute officials hired to replace the 24 referees who walked out Sunday in a contract dispute. "That wasn't my problem tonight."

"My problem was with the Lord," Fitch said of the veteran Powers, who ejected the Cleveland coach on two technical fouls with 7:22 remaining in the third period. "Trying to talk with him is like getting an audience with the Pope."

McCann also called two technicals against Cleveland players, but Fitch criticized Powers for "trying to work a one-man game" and belittling the fill-in official.

"Richie kept looking at the fans and the players on the bench when the other guy made a call," Fitch said, "like he was saying, 'it's not my fault.' He shouldn't belittle the guy he's working with."

Fitch said when he was ejected, he was merely trying to get a clarification of a decision after the two officials called fouls on members of each team—with the call by Powers against Cleveland holding up.

"All I got from Richie," Fitch said, "was a dissertation on how much rope he'd been giving us. You can't communicate with him."

Eight of striking referees picketed outside the Capital Centre prior to the game, prompting Fitch to say of Powers: "I'd have been the happiest guy in the world if I had gone by the picket line and seen him with a sign in his hand."

Chenier sank eight of 12 shots in the first half, scoring 21 points as the Bullets opened up a 53-39 lead while getting only four points from Elvin Hayes, the team scoring leader.

As Fitch headed for the exit, Chenier sank two of the four free throws he made following the technicals, and Cleveland trailed 66-47.

Hayes wound up with 21 points and 10 rebounds despite his slow start, and Kevin Greavy had 16 for the Bullets—who were outscored by five field goals but hit 31 of 34 free throws. Washington's Wes Unseld grabbed 16 rebounds and Tom Henderson handed off 11 assists.

Cleveland was led by Fouts Walker, who scored 20 points as a replacement for Jim Clemons, the player who is out of the playoffs with a groin injury. Elmore Smith scored 17 and Campy Russell had 16 while missing 13 of 19 shots.

Center Nate Thurmond, who underwent knee surgery in February and was reactivated for the playoffs, was not used by Fitch.

Asked about his recent slump, Chenier said: "That's what they called it. I was trying to do the best I can, but I guess it wasn't good enough."

Washington Coach Dick Motta and his players discounted the relatively easy victory, and Bingo Smith of the Cavs said there was no reason why Cleveland couldn't rebound Friday.

"We all missed shots," said Smith, whose three late baskets enabled him to finish with a poor 4-for-17 night. "They'll be falling next time."

On Friday, Washington could be without rookie Mitch Kupchak, the highly regarded front line backup who reinjured a sprained ankle with 2:10 left to play.

His left foot was placed in a cast as a precautionary measure, and the injury was to be examined today.

Reds Swept Aside In Astro Hit Storm

By KEN RAPPOPORT

AP Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds do not usually encounter turbulence inside the Houston Astrodome, but they have run into a storm of base hits there of late. The Astros have been supplying most of the thunder and lightning for the past three games, chasing the defending world champions clear out of the place.

"We pulled a page out of their book," said Houston's Bob Watson after the Astros defeated the Reds 7-6 Wednesday night for a sweep of their three-game series. "This is the first time I can remember ever sweeping the Reds."

More precisely, the Astros have not swept a three-game set from Cincinnati since Sept. 1971. The resurrected Astros are off to their best start since 1968 with a 5-1 record while the Reds conversely are off to their worst beginning since 1972 at 2-5.

The quick getaway has triggered optimism in the Astros' camp.

"Those guys believe we can win and they're going out and proving it," says Willie Crawford, who delivered the gamewinning hit with an RBI single in the ninth.

Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson shrugged off his club's five-game losing streak as "just one of those things."

"We simply got beat," Anderson added. "Seven games don't make a season. Let's add it up in October."

In other National League games, the Los Angeles Dodgers nipped the Atlanta Braves 4-3, the Chicago Cubs beat the Philadelphia Phillies 3-1, the Pittsburgh Pirates blanked the Montreal Expos 3-0, the St. Louis Cardinals trimmed the New York Mets 7-3 and the San Francisco Giants defeated the San Diego Padres 3-1.

Dodgers 4, Braves 3

Rick Monday's eighth-inning homer lifted Los Angeles past Atlanta.

Monday's homer, his first as a member of the Dodgers, came off Phil Niekro, 0-2, and provided reliever Charlie Hough with his first victory. Hough took over for Don Sutton, who left after seven innings when his back stiffened. The Dodgers' knuckleballer worked the last two innings.

Pirates 3, Expos 0

Bruce Kison pitched a twohitter and Bill Robinson drove in one run and scored one, leading Pittsburgh over Montreal. Kison struck out nine and walked one. He retired the final 13 Expos batters, striking out five of the last six in a duel with Montreal's Steve Rogers, who did not allow an earned run.

Cardinals 7, Mets 3

Two-run homers by Ted Simmons and Keith Hernandez highlighted a St. Louis extrabase hit barrage and John Denny defeated New York for the sixth time in seven career decisions as the Cardinals rolled past the Mets.

St. Louis jumped on Craig Swan for two runs in the second inning on a double by Hernandez, Don Kessinger's RBI single and Lou Brock's triple. The Cards chased Swan with a three-run third.

Cubs 3, Phillies 1

Ray Burris gave up three hits in seven innings and George Mitterwald homered in a two-run seventh as Chicago downed Philadelphia.

Mitterwald's solo homer snapped a scoreless tie in the seventh and the Cubs eventually scored the winning run later in the inning on Jose Cardenal's RBI double.

Giants 3, Padres 1

Right-hander John Montefusco fired a three-hitter, carrying San Francisco over San Diego and ending a three-game Padres' winning streak. Montefusco, 1-1, struck out eight and walked three.

Bill Madlock paced San Francisco's 10-hit attack with a single and a solo homer.

Streaks Keep Some NHL Teams Smiling

By FRANK BROWN

AP Sports Writer

There's nothing like a winning streak to keep people smiling during the National Hockey League playoffs. The teams that are winning these days — the New York Islanders, Montreal Canadiens, Boston Bruins and Toronto Maple Leafs — have compiled some pretty impressive streaks.

—The Islanders beat the Buffalo Sabres 4-2 for their sixth consecutive win in the playoffs Wednesday night on the third consecutive game-winning goal by left wing Clark Gillies. The triumph extended goalie Billy Smith's personal unbeaten string to 13 games over-all and to eight straight victories over the Sabres.

—The Canadiens beat St. Louis 3-0 for their 10th consecutive playoff victory over the Blues and their sixth straight post-season triumph, while extending their home unbeaten string to 36 games, with 30 victories and six ties.

—The Bruins clubbed Los Angeles 6-2 for their third straight over the Kings, and the Maple Leafs trimmed the Flyers 4-1 for their second straight at the Philadelphia Spectrum. That is impressive because Toronto had won only once in six years there before the playoffs.

The loss extended the Flyers' playoff losing string to six games, including Montreal's four-game sweep in the Stanley Cup final last spring.

The results gave the winners 2-0 leads in the best-of-seven quarter-final series.

Islanders 4, Sabres 2

New York rallied from a 2-0 deficit, scoring four consecutive goals after Buffalo had displayed power and strength in the first half of the game.

Gillies, who scored the series-clinching goal in the preliminary round and the winner in the opener of the Sabres' series, broke a 2-2 tie by netting a rebound at 8:30 of the third period.

Canadiens 3, Blues 0

Guy Lafleur raised his scoring output to four goals and four assists in two games against St. Louis while Steve Shutt and Bob Gainey added the tallies which backed Ken Dryden's 23-save shutout for Montreal.

Maple Leafs 4, Flyers 1

On March 7, Toronto won at Philadelphia for the first time in six years. Now in 72 hours, they collected a two-game winning streak.

Bob Neely and Stan Weir scored power-play goals and Dave Williams gave Toronto a 3-0 lead before the Flyers got a goal from Rick MacLeish. Lanny McDonald closed out the scoring.

As for the Flyers, who have won the Stanley Cup twice in the last three years, the losing streak is mystifying.

"It might be better to play in Toronto," said goalie Bernie Parent, who was replaced in the third period by Wayne Stephenson. "It may take a little pressure off the guys."

Bruins 6, Kings 2

Stan Jonathan, Terry O'Reilly and Bobby Schmautz scored in a 3:39 span of the first period, putting Boston ahead for good. Schmautz scored again later, picking up his fifth goal in two games.

Vikings Drop Close Tilt To Blue Lions

Teays Valley dropped a close 10-9 decision to Washington C.H. Wednesday on the Blue Lions' diamond.

The Vikings were trailing 10-7 going into the sixth inning and pushed two runs across in the top of the sixth to narrow the gap to one run but never could come up with another marker to even the score.

Dean Gloyd and Greg Prince shared the mound for the Vikings. They gave up a total of 10 hits, five walks and fanned three.

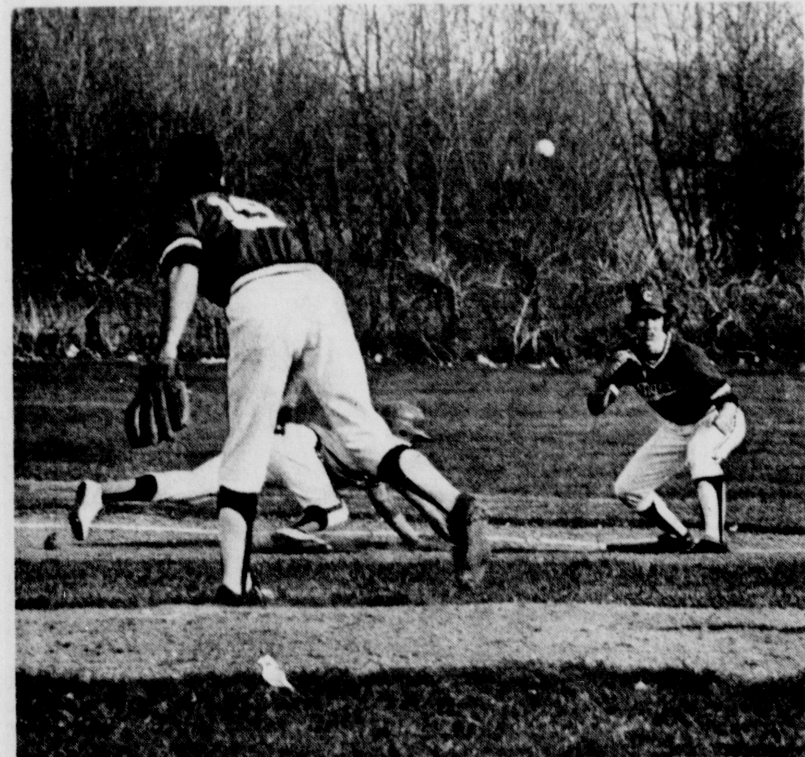

Johnson and Dean were on the hill for the Blue Lions. They allowed a total of 13 hits, five walks and five strikeouts.

Terry Trego rapped a pair of singles for Teays Valley, Duane Keller slashed three one-baggers, Prince belted a double and pair of singles, John Sanders cracked two doubles while Lance Roese, Gary Van Pelt and Ernie Fielder each bombed a double.

DeWeese led Washington C.H. with a homer and triple while Elliott, Johnson and Fisher each slammed a triple.

The Vikings are now 2-4 and will be home 4:30 p.m. today with Grandview.

Tigers Open Season With SCOL Victory

HIT THE DIRT — A Wilmington runner dives back for the bag as Circleville's Brian Fath fires to Bo Barthelmas in an attempted pickoff at first base. Fath hurled all the way while Barthelmas was the big man at the plate in the Tiger victory.

A bases loaded belt by Bo Barthelmas in the bottom of the seventh gave the Circleville Tigers a 6-5 win over visiting Wilmington in the Tigers' season opener.

Barthelmas carried the big stick for the Red and Black as he also rapped a double and ended up with three RBI's in the game.

Wilmington opened the scoring with two runs in the top of the first innings and capped its scoring with three markers in the fourth.

The Tigers battled back with a pair of runs in the bottom of the second, added another in the fourth, tallied twice in the fifth and won it in the bottom of the seventh.

Brian Fath went all the way for the Tigers. The strong righthander gave up 10 hits, walked six and fanned four.

Eden and Starkey shared the mound for the Hurricane. They gave up a total of 10 hits, eight walks and struck out one.

Brett Allen, Bob Fuller and Gary Combs all had two singles for the Red and Black while Mearle Logan and Tom Scherer each rapped a one-bagger. Early had three hits to lead the Wilmington attack.

Fath and catcher Brad Allison are co-captains of this year's Tiger squad.

The Tigers have lost the services of Toren Bensonhaver for about six weeks due to an injured left elbow.

Circleville is now 1-0 and will be at Washington C. H. Friday in another South Central Ohio League clash.

Stoutsville Sets LL Registration

Stoutsville Little League will hold registrations Saturday and also April 23 from 9 a.m. until noon at Lands Garage in Stoutsville.

New Oakland Gets A's

By BOB GREEN
AP Sports Writer

Maybe Charles O. Finley was right, after all.

The old Oakland A's, who won three straight World Series, are scattered around the major leagues, having left the Bay Area as free agents or through trades and sales.

Still, Oakland moved into the lead in the American League West Division with a 5-1 record by beating the California Angels 9-3 Wednesday.

The A's hero this time was Mitchell Page, a rookie obtained in a trade with Pittsburgh during spring training. Page slammed two home runs and a double, and knocked in six runs.

"It's the first time I've done this since I drove in eight runs against Memphis in the minors last year," Page said. "I've never had a day like this in the majors."

But then Rick Langford does not pitch every day.

"I always do well when Rick pitches," Page said, referring to Oakland's winning rookie hurler. "I told him I'd hit a homer."

In other AL games Wednesday, it was: Chicago 7, Boston 3; Toronto 7, Detroit 6; New York 5, Kansas City 3; Cleveland 5, Texas 3, and Seattle 3, Minnesota 2 in 13 innings.

Page hit a three-run homer in the third inning and a solo homer in the seventh. In the eighth, he doubled home two more runs.

Joe Rudi, whom Page replaced in left field for Oakland, drove in two California runs with a sixth-inning single.

White Sox 7, Red Sox 3

Richie Zisk and Jim Essian slammed upper-deck home runs, leading Chicago's power barrage against winless Boston. Ralph Garr, who singled and scored on Zisk's second homer of the season, tripled home two runs in the fifth inning.

It was Essian's first home run in his 101-game major league career.

Blue Jays 7, Tigers 6

Doug Ault's homer and six Detroit errors, three by shortstop Mark Wagner, lifted Toronto over the Tigers.

Jason Thompson's homer was the big blow in Detroit's four-run fifth inning. Ben Oglivie also homered for the Tigers.

Indians 5, Rangers 3

Rick Manning scored in the eighth inning on Rico Carty's single as Cleveland held off a ninth-inning Texas rally and defeated the Rangers. It was Texas' first loss of the season after four victories.

Dennis Eckersley, 1-0, stopped the Rangers until the ninth, when Claudell Washington and Mike Hargrove hit two-out singles and Toby Harrah slammed a three-run homer.

Manning scored three times, and Cleveland's last run came when Duane Kuiper was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded.

Yankees 5, Royals 3

Bucky Dent's eighth-inning double scored Willie Randolph, lifting New York to its victory over Kansas City. The triumph snapped a three-game losing string for the Yankees and handed the Royals their first loss of the year.

Mariners 3, Twins 2, 13 innings

Steve Braun's two-out single scored Larry Milbourne from second and gave Seattle its victory over Minnesota. Milbourne had led off the 13th with a single and moved to second on a balk by Twins reliever Tom Burgmeier.

The game went into extra innings when Seattle rallied for a run in the bottom of the ninth on Tommy Smith's pinch-hit RBI single.

Zane Trace

Rally Tops

Southeastern

Zane Trace came up with a big third inning to down Southeastern, 9-5, Wednesday on the Pioneers' diamond. They were trailing 5-2 when they exploded for five runs in the bottom of the third and then added two more in the sixth to gain the win.

Brian Kerns went all the way for Trace as he scattered 10 hits, walked five and didn't record a strike out.

Don Snyder hurled the distance for Southeastern. He gave up 10 hits, walked three and fanned three.

Don Mallow led the Trace attack with a homer and double, Casey Hinton rapped a double and single, Terry French slammed a double while Kerns, Erik Haynes, Mark Whaley, Rick Leadingham and Tim Street each rapped a single.

Rick Shrader slammed a home run for Southeastern in the first inning.

Zane Trace is now 3-5 for the season, 3-1 in the Scioto Valley Conference, and will host Huntington 4:30 p.m. Friday.

Tiger Reserves

Rap Wilmington

Circleville' reserves traveled to Wilmington Wednesday and handed the Hurricane a 16-8 setback.

John Harr went all the way for the Tigers allowing 10 hits, four walks and fanning nine.

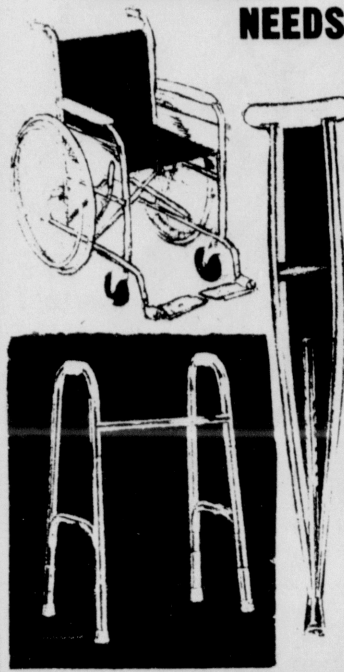

Massie and Habermehl shared the mound for Wilmington. They gave up a total of 18 hits, five walks and whiffed 12.

Tom Logan paced the Tigers with five hits including a grand slam homer, Harr added three hits, Jerry Mogan collected a trio of base hits. Brian Sealock and Jeff Strawser both had two hits while Pat Poorman, Dave Beckley and Rob Spangler each had one.

Pogue and Lundquist each had three hits for the Hurricane.

Circleville is now 1-1 and will host Washington C. H. in a doubleheader noon Saturday.

Jackie Robinson's Debut Recalled

NEW YORK (AP) — Thirty years ago, Jackie Robinson made his debut as the first black to play baseball in the major leagues, and Rachel remembers.

"They were tense times," the widow of the Brooklyn Dodger immortal said, "but our problems were mostly practical problems. Jackie was very strong. He managed to keep any nervousness he might have to himself. Still, it was an unforgettable experience."

On April 10, 1947, Branch Rickey of the Brooklyn Dodgers announced he had bought Robinson's contract from the Montreal Royals. The next day, Robinson took the field as a Dodger in an exhibition game against the Yankees. The Dodgers won 14-6.

The lily-white baseball establishment was shaken to its roots. The revolutionary event remains fresh in the mind of Joe Reichler, now assistant to Commissioner Bowie Kuhn and then baseball writer for The Associated Press.

"It was harrowing," Reichler recalls. "On the spring trip up from Florida, there were all sorts of threats. The Ku Klux Klan threatened to ride Jackie out of town if he attempted to play in Macon, Ga."

"Dixie Walker and Bobby Bragan led a threatened strike on the Dodgers. Enos Slaughter of the Cardinals said he would never play against a black man. Players on opposing teams would puff themselves up like watermelons and yell insults from the bench."

"Just to give you an idea of the feelings at the time, Ben Chapman, manager of the Phillies, unleashed a black cat and sent it scampering across the field."

Rachel Robinson was aware of this sinister cloud when she joined her husband in New York in early April, 1947.

"It was right after the war," she said. "We had only been married a little over a year and our first child, Jackie, Jr., was just five months old."

The Dodgers opened their season at Ebbets Field on Tuesday, April 15. Their opponents were the Boston Braves. Johnny Sain pitched for Boston.

"Of course, Jackie had to get up and leave early," Mrs. Robinson recalled. "I had to find some way to get to the park myself. Coming from California, we didn't have proper clothes for the cold, spring day. I had only a cloth coat, Jackie Jr. a light jacket."

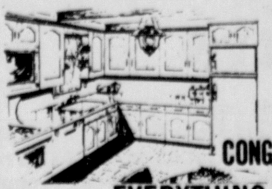

The young wife, with the small baby in her arms, ran into another problem common to all New Yorkers. One after another, taxi drivers passed her by. "They said they didn't want to go to Brooklyn," she said. "But we finally got there. We sat with Roy Campanella's wife and her mother. The mother had on a heavy fur coat and protected little Jackie against the cold."

Rachel almost froze in the chill wind. Jackie never hit the ball out of the infield and reached base only on an error. "Sain treated me like a school kid," Jackie was to say later. However, the crowd gave him a big ovation and there were no incidents. "Jackie was disappointed but not crushed," his widow said. "He wasn't so much concerned over what he did that first day as whether he could make it in the major leagues."

Robinson made it, 10 brilliant years with the Dodgers that led to the Hall of Fame. On Oct. 24, 1972 he died from diabetes and other ailments at age 53.

Tiger Girls Claw Bexley

EASY OUT — Circleville's Susan Radcliff has the ball for an easy out at first base as the Bexley runner is still short of the bag. Susan also was tough at the plate as she slammed a homer and two doubles in the Tigers 19-1 win over the visitor.

Circleville's girls came up with a big plate barrage as they downed visiting Bexley Wednesday.

Jane Cole and Lisa Jones teamed up to hurl the victory. They gave up a total of 12 hits while their teammates were collecting 20 hits off Pfau and Winsted.

Sohio Must Sell Stations

CLEVELAND (AP) — A dealer-owned marketing company has been formed to buy gas stations from Standard Oil Co. (Ohio), which must get rid of the stations under an anti-trust settlement.

The group, Refiners Outlet Co., plans to operate 33 fullservice stations under the name of Care Service.

Walters-Reasoner: Too Early To Tell

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — It's too early to predict the future of the Harry Reasoner-Barbara Walters ABC Evening News team, said a network vice president.

Elmer W. Lower, ABC corporate affairs vice president, was in Salt Lake to speak at the University of Utah Wednesday and was asked about the team by a reporter.

"I think six months is not long enough to judge whether it worked or not. I'd give it at least a year," Lower said.

Miss Walters was hired by ABC at an annual salary of $1 million and began co-anchoring the evening news show last fall.

Centers. Twenty-two of the stations are in the Cleveland area.

Under a 1970 antitrust settlement with the federal government, Sohio agreed to sell stations with a combined volume of 400 million gallons of gas. The settlement was made after Sohio acquired the U.S. operations of British Petroleum Ltd., including retail outlets on the east coast. BP now owns 24 per cent of Sohio and is involved with the parent company in development of Alaska pipeline oil.

Besides selling the 33 stations to Refiners Outlet, Sohio says it plans to sell another 113 to the Southland Corp. of Dallas.

Elliot M. Kaufman, Refiners executive vice president, explained that the dealers banded together because Sohio's divestiture agreement stipulated that sales of stations must be made in groups of 10 or more.

He said that Refiners will act as buying group and each dealer-owner will be a shareholder in the marketing company. The stations will be supplied with gasoline by Sohio under a four-year agreement, Kaufman said.

Clifford C. Mager, president of the new chain, said each member dealer is free to set gasoline prices and methods of operations.

Tarleton News

MRS. JOE JENKINS — 474-5542

All youth, aged twelve years and up, of both St. Jacobs Church and Trinity Lutheran, Stoutsville, will meet at St. Jacob's, Tarleton, at 3:30 p.m., April 17, for Lutheran League.

The Youth Fellowship is to be commended for the Sunrise Service presented at the Methodist Church on Easter Sunday, and the congregation appreciated the inspirational message given by the speaker, Delbert Ash.

The Rev. Raymond Welch will be the Evangelist at revival services at the Colerain Church this week.

Keith Turvey, Stormville, New York, was the Easter weekend guest of his mother, Mrs. Lenna Turvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hartranft were hosts at a family dinner on Easter Sunday, with their guests including Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hartranft and Dawn, Mr. and Mrs. Orman Hartranft, Cheryl and Mindy, Laurelville, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hartranft and Trent, Aaron, Hilliards, Mr. and Mrs. Thad Carper, Craig and Nicole and

Mrs. Hazel Hartranft, Tarleton.

Mrs. Genevieve Hedges was the Easter dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hedges, Washington, C.H.

Charles Spangler and son Michael, Gahanna, spent the holiday weekend with his mother, Mrs. Albert Spangler and Jerry. Other guests for Easter dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kreider, Chillicothe.

Charles' wife, Kathy, had chaperoned a group of French students from Eastmoor High School, Columbus, on a trip to France, during the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. David Singleton were Easter dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Griffith and sons.

Easter Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Reichelderfer and Marvin were Carolyn Reichelderfer and Al O'Ryan, Columbus and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fox, Circleville.

Mrs. Reichelderfer, who recently underwent surgery, is getting along very well and was able to attend church services on Easter Sunday.

The Circleville Herald, Thursday April 14, 1977

Mrs. Reichelderfer's sister, Mrs. Fox, is convalescing after suffering a broken hip.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jenkins were Mr. and Mrs. John J. Jenkins, Massillon, Mr. and Mrs. John Pontius, Todd, Doug, Brian and Lisa, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duvall, Beth and Joel, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jenkins and Justin and Mrs. James Brigner.

Members of Mrs. Letha Murray's family, who gathered to visit her and daughter Tessie, on Easter Sunday included Mrs. Linda Smith and son and daughter, Adelphi; Mrs. Phyllis Owens and sons, Whitehall; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Murray, son and daughter, Stoutsville; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mock and son, Lancaster; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray, Jr., son and daughter, Centerville, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Murray and family, Tarleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murray and family, Lancaster, visited Mrs. Murray on Saturday and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hilton (Shirley Murray) called Mrs. Murray on Easter from Texas.

The United Methodist Women met in the church social room on Wednesday afternoon. Members sang "Christ Arose" and "He Lives" and Pauline

Pearce led devotions, reading scripture from the 28th chapter of Matthew, verses 1-10. Mrs. Pearce closed devotions with prayer, followed by three readings "At Easter" "At Easter Time", and "The Preacher."

During the business meeting, conducted by the president, Fay Pine, final plans were made for the Easter breakfast. Members are asked to bring unmarked baby pictures to the next meeting.

Beulah Robbins gave a reading "The Touch of the Master's Hand" and Marie Pine read "The Perfect Church" and "Looking at Life."

Eighteen members and two guests enjoyed refreshments, served by the hostesses, Ruth Hunt and Bertha O'Hara, at tables decorated with bouquets of spring flowers and Easter napkins and place mats.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Mary E. Kinser, who passed away April 14, 1976.

Time speeds on, one year has passed
Since death its gloom, its shadows cast,
Within our homes, where all seemed bright,
And took from us a shining light.

We miss that light, and ever will,
Her vacant place there's none to fill.
Down here we mourn, but not in vain,
For up in heaven we will meet again.

Husband and families.

PUBLIC AUCTION
PARTITION SALE OF PRIME LAND
TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1977

(1:30 P.M. on the premises)

281.90 Acres, Pickaway County

Prime Location

Located on U.S. Route 23, North of South Bloomfield on the Westside of the road opposite the Junction of U.S. Route 23 and Wiegand Road. Premises located 13 miles South of Columbus and 10 miles North of Circleville.

PARCEL NO. 1 Consisting of 181.90 acres more or less, together with: 15 room old brick house, with 7 rooms and large hall downstairs and 8 rooms and large hall up-stairs together with balcony, some hardwood flooring, walnut woodwork and fireplaces; Main barn — 36' x 42'; Second barn — 20' x 40'; Pole implement building — approximately 60' x 30'; two corn cribs with drive thru — approximately 30' x 75'; hog building 40' x 24'; cement silo; old summer kitchen and three other buildings.

PARCEL NO. 2 Consisting of 100.00 acres more or less, together with white shingle tenant house consisting of eight rooms and full basement with fuel oil furnace and bath. Offers unusual investment opportunity — agriculture, residential and commercial use, land subject, however to zoning regulations; has gravel deposits. There are a total of three access points on U.S. Route 23. The buildings are in need of some repair and restoration but offer unusual potential as either a private residence or as commercial property subject to zoning regulations.

Said property is being sold in pursuance of an Order of Sale in Partition with Parcel No. 1 and Parcel No. 2 being each first offered as separate units and then as one unit with said premises to be sold upon such basis as shall return the greater price for said premises.

APPRAISALS

PARCEL NO. 1 181.90 acres more or less — appraised at $1,825.00 per acre or a total of $331,967.50.

PARCEL NO. 2 100.00 acres more or less — appraised at $1,700.00 per acre or a total of $170,000.00.

Can not be sold for less than two-thirds of the appraised value
 TERMS OF SALE: 10 per cent deposit on day of sale, balance in full to be paid in cash or certified check on delivery of deed within thirty days after day of sale.

Views On Television

LOS ANGELES (AP) —

Having spent "A Day with President Nixon" in 1973, NBC News tonight is airing "A Day with President Carter," taped over a 17-hour period at the White House last April 4.

The reveille-to-taps visit by John Chancellor is to include an interview on matters foreign and domestic that the anchorman was scheduled to tape with Carter this morning.

Finished parts of the show we saw in advance Wednesday contain no hot poop, no harsh comment on Carter by the Washington usuals.

His participation, agreeing to be wired for sound and letting Chancellor & Co. follow him around, can be regarded as another effort by Carter's media gurus to show him favorably, which is their job.

No harm done. Even though NBC's study isn't a critical view, it is a well-edited, solidly interesting look at the new president at work, an hour's history lesson well worth your time.

There are some ground rules, namely "when they say turn off the cameras we turn off the cameras," Chancellor notes. He doesn't elaborate, but one can assume security reasons cause the turn-offs.

We learn Carter starts his working day listening to classical music, and that he "demands efficiency and if you're late for a meeting, watch out. He's neat, precise, something of a workaholic..."

His day includes a Cabinet meeting; the arrival of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat for closed-door, nontaped Middle East talks; a powwow with congressional liaison aides; an awards ceremony; a visitation by senators and congressmen for sugar-producing states; a working dinner with Sadat, a late-night chat with son Chip and friends.

It all starts at 6:28 a.m. with a meeting with Carter's foreign policy advisor Zbigniew Brzezinski. Carter says he'll send Chip to China. He also discusses outlines of a coming speech.

The Cabinet meeting — which Chancellor says NBC was allowed to tape for all but a few minutes of the two hours it lasted — ranges from food stamps to inflation to strategic arms control.

Sadat's arrival has a funny moment as Carter, after the two pose for pictures, softly inquires: "Do you need to go to the bathroom or anything?" It is so nice to know world leaders are still mortal.

While NBC's day with Carter is wholly serene, minus arguments people there are rumored to have now and then, at least it reminds us there are mortals in the White House and shows us what they do.

It conclusively proves the White House isn't solely powered by the murmuring of informed sources.

The blue whale can reach lengths of up to 100 feet and tip the scales at 200 tons, the equivalent weight of 33 African elephants, according to National Geographic.

The Cabinet meeting — which Chancellor says NBC was allowed to tape for all but a few minutes of the two hours it lasted — ranges from food stamps to inflation to strategic arms control.

Sadat's arrival has a funny moment as Carter, after the two pose for pictures, softly inquires: "Do you need to go to the bathroom or anything?" It is so nice to know world leaders are still mortal.

While NBC's day with Carter is wholly serene, minus arguments people there are rumored to have now and then, at least it reminds us there are mortals in the White House and shows us what they do.

It conclusively proves the White House isn't solely powered by the murmuring of informed sources.

LOS ANGELES (AP) —

Having spent "A Day with President Nixon" in 1973, NBC News tonight is airing "A Day with President Carter," taped over a 17-hour period at the White House last April 4.

The reveille-to-taps visit by John Chancellor is to include an interview on matters foreign and domestic that the anchorman was scheduled to tape with Carter this morning.

Finished parts of the show we saw in advance Wednesday contain no hot poop, no harsh comment on Carter by the Washington usuals.

His participation, agreeing to be wired for sound and letting Chancellor & Co. follow him around, can be regarded as another effort by Carter's media gurus to show him favorably, which is their job.

No harm done. Even though NBC's study isn't a critical view, it is a well-edited, solidly interesting look at the new president at work, an hour's history lesson well worth your time.

There are some ground rules, namely "when they say turn off the cameras we turn off the cameras," Chancellor notes. He doesn't elaborate, but one can assume security reasons cause the turn-offs.

We learn Carter starts his working day listening to classical music, and that he "demands efficiency and if you're late for a meeting, watch out. He's neat, precise, something of a workaholic..."

His day includes a Cabinet meeting; the arrival of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat for closed-door, nontaped Middle East talks; a powwow with congressional liaison aides; an awards ceremony; a visitation by senators and congressmen for sugar-producing states; a working dinner with Sadat, a late-night chat with son Chip and friends.

It all starts at 6:28 a.m. with a meeting with Carter's foreign policy advisor Zbigniew Brzezinski. Carter says he'll send Chip to China. He also discusses outlines of a coming speech.

Taylor To Open Second Funeral Home In Tarlton

TAYLOR FUNERAL HOME, TARLTON

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Taylor, who have operated a funeral home in Amanda since 1959, are opening another one in Tarlton.

It will be located in a brick building built in the early 1800s on the main street of the village.

The building has been restored by Taylor. It originally housed a dry goods store on one side and the home of the proprietors on the other. One of the few changes Taylor has made from the original architecture was to cut a doorway connecting what was the old dry goods store sales room to the portion that was used as a home. Originally, there was no connecting doorway.

Taylor has done much of the restoration himself. There will be an open house 1 to 7 p.m. Saturday and 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday.

The funeral home will have two large rooms in front, both of which can be used as chapels and visitation rooms, an office and an embalming room on the lower floor, and a smoking lounge upstairs.

Originally from Paulding County, Taylor and his wife Eleanor purchased the former VanCleve Funeral Home in Amanda in 1959. At that time he was the youngest owner-operator of a funeral home in the state of Ohio.

The Taylors will operate both funeral homes. Both Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are licensed directors.

Mr. Taylor is a graduate from the Cincinnati College of Embalming. He attended Otterbein College.

He is a member of the Amanda Lions, Masonic Lodge, York Rite and Scottish Rite, Stoutsville Knights of Pythias, a director of the Ohio Pony of the Americas Club, a member of the Amanda United Methodist Church, coordinator of the emergency medical squad in Amanda and a member of the Ohio and National Funeral Directors Assn.

City Church Burglarized

The Circleville Police Department is today continuing the investigation into a burglary at the Community United Methodist Church at the corner of Main and Pickaway Streets.

According to the report, the Rev. David Frazer, minister of the church, informed police of the break-in at 8 a.m. this morning.

Apparently the thieves entered through a west-side door. They entered the church office by prying open the office door. A window in the office was broken also. Desk drawers and file cabinets were opened.

At the time the report was taken, an undetermined amount of property was missing. Officers from the Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation at London were called to Circleville this morning to check the scene for fingerprints.

4th Court Of Appeals To Convene

Judge Homer E. Abele, McArthur, Ohio, presiding judge of the Fourth District Court of Appeals, announced that the Court will convene on April 27, at 9:30 a.m. in Pickaway County.

In addition to Judge Abele, the court is comprised of Judge Earl E. Stephenson of Portsmouth, Ohio and Judge Lawrence Grey of Athens, Ohio.

The Court of Appeals directly reviews all cases heard or tried in lower courts in which a decision is being appealed. The cases may have been tried in Common Pleas, Probate or Juvenile, Municipal or County Courts, and may be either civil or criminal cases.

The Fourth District Court of Appeals serves fifteen counties in Southern Ohio. They are: Adams, Athens, Brown, Gallia, Highland, Hocking, Jackson, Lawrence, Meigs, Pickaway, Pike, Ross, Scioto, Vinton and Washington.
